Informational Meeting for current on-campus students:

Informational Meetings
Sunday, April 5th
- Gordy 4th Floor Lobby at 7:30pm
- East Community Room at 8pm
- Cobb Lobby at 9pm
- Smith Johnston/Paul Jones Lobby at 9pm
In this meeting you will receive your housing contract and we will be explaining the housing process.

How Do I Sign Up?

April 5th – Attend meeting and receive contract

April 13th - 17th – Turn in your housing contracts to the Residence Life Office on your designated day. Contracts can be picked up at the Residence Life Office in the Hasty Student Life Center.

In order to receive housing:
- You must complete advisement
- You must fill out an advisor evaluation online
- You must be registered for Fall 2009

 Your housing will be dropped if you are not registered for Fall ’09 by May 1, 2009.

Calendar Clarification

The checkmark indicates your assigned day. You can turn your contract in after your assigned day, but you will not be assigned with the rest of your academic class. Your assignment will be done with the class assigned to the day you turn in your contract.

*Squatters will be sent out to students through campus mail by Thursday, April 23rd.
WHAT ACADEMIC BLOCK ARE YOU IN????

Seniors– 90+ hours

Juniors– 60-89 hours

Sophomore– 30-59 hours

Freshman 29 or fewer hours

Hours are based on the number of hours that you will complete at the end of the current spring semester. Summer 2009 hours will not be included.

WHAT ARE SQUATTERS RIGHTS?!?!?

Squatters are residents that wish to remain in their current living situation for Fall ‘09. Squatters have the first opportunity to turn in their housing contracts. This will not apply for any new roommates. This is the only day (Monday, April 13 by 5pm) that we will accept squatter contracts. Failure to turn it in on this day will result in your current assignment possibly being reassigned.

Gordy Hall, Smith Johnston Hall
These halls are available to female residents. Suite style, and limited private rooms are available. All female residents can apply to live in Smith Johnston and Gordy Hall.

Roberts, Paul Jones, and Cobb Hall
These halls are available to all male residents. Limited private and double rooms are available. Any male resident can apply to live in Roberts, PJ, or Cobb.

East Apartments– You must be a returning male student to live in the East Apartments. 2-bedroom and 4-bedroom suites are available. Priority for assignments in the apartments will be given to students who have completed more than 30 credit hours.

West Apartments– You must be a returning female student to live in the West Apartments. 2-bedroom and 4-bedroom suites are available. The West Apartments are open to female residents only. Priority for assignments in the apartments will be given to students who have completed more than 30 credit hours.

1) Attend the hall meeting and receive your brochure and housing contract on April 5th. If you can’t attend a meeting you can get a brochure and contract at the Residence Life Office in the Hasty Student Center.

2) Talk to future roommates and decide where you want to live.

3) Select your hall, meal plan, and roommate choices on your housing contract. Make sure to select a back-up choice! Contracts can be found at the Residence Life Office in the Hasty Student Center.

4) Turn in your contract on the assigned day (see page 7) in the Residence Life Offices in the Student Center between 9:00 am-5:00pm.

-You will not be penalized for turning in a late contract if you choose not to squat in your same assignment. (up to 24 hours).

-All requests for non-designated private rooms will be based upon occupancy. The only private rooms we will guarantee are rooms that are designated as private.

-You can turn in your contract any time on your assigned day (You will not be given preference based on what time you turn it in on that day).

-If you plan to live with someone of a different academic standing, you should each turn in your housing preferences individually on the assigned days for your class standing.
