Are you questioning the same paradigms of efficiency, goal achievement, control and analysis, hierarchy for finding more human and wisdom oriented strategies like all those who carry a heavy workload are? This talk aims at exploring how we can face challenges with a greater sense of focused awareness, response-ability, and a willingness to change with positive effort.

Dr. Joshi holds a PH.D. degree from the University of Michigan, U.S.A., and a M.A., Ph.D. from M.S. University of Baroda, India. His publications include books and a wide range of articles published in India, USA, and Australia. Dr. Joshi has given many presentations and has held workshops around the world including at the United Nations, The World Bank, the Pentagon, as well as at Dr. Deepak Chopra’s program in San Diego. This year he was a key speaker at India Conclave 2010 held in New Delhi and recently at the Advait Conference in Russia.