

Reinhardt University
Sport Studies Program

Program Goal and Outcomes

Program Goal

The Sport Studies Program is designed to develop graduates with a broad cultural perspective of sport, with practical skills suitable for employment in sport-related settings, and with ethical and moral characteristics suitable for assuming leadership roles in contemporary society.

Program Outcomes

Students graduating with a degree in Sport Studies should be able to:

1. communicate effectively in academic courses and internship/practicum placements as evidenced by written, spoken, and visual examples
2. exhibit personal integrity and leadership skills as evidenced by documented experiences in academic courses and internship/practicum placements
3. recognize moral and ethical issues associated with sport (from contemporary and historical perspectives)
4. analyze social, cultural, and historical factors influencing the development of sport organizations, and the decision-making processes for sport leaders in those organizations
5. work collaboratively and in leadership roles in a sport-related professional career setting
