Format
A combination of clergy and lay people make up most foursomes. The Fort Lauderdale system will be used. All four players drive and then hit from the best ball position after each shot until holed out – record gross score. Each player turns in a handicap (maximum 30) or average score. Team handicap will be fairly adjusted by supervising pro. Course allows soft spikes only.

Awards
A Reinhardt gift bag will be given to all players. Prizes will be awarded to the first low gross team and the top three low net scoring teams. Individual prizes will also be awarded for: putting contest, most accurate drive, longest drive, closest to the pin on par 3s and a hole-in-one. Special drawing prizes will be awarded at random.

Sponsorship Opportunities
Presidential Sponsorship ($3,000): Includes four playing spots and four player packages and recognition at the Golf Outing.
Scholarship Sponsor ($2,000): Includes four playing spots and four player packages.

Reinhardt University is proud of its United Methodist connections. This tournament raises critical scholarship dollars for students to obtain their degrees in a challenging and supportive learning community.

United Methodist students are eligible to receive up to $2,000 per year and dependents of North and South Georgia United Methodist clergy may receive up to $12,000 per year from the Reinhardt United Methodist Scholarship Fund. Every dollar raised by the Reinhardt United Methodist Scholarship Golf Outing goes directly to student scholarships.

Sixty dollars represents the fair market value of goods or services received per participating player in the golf tournament. The balance of your donation is tax deductible within the limits of the law.
