Dedication

DR. JONATHAN C. ROGERS

To you, Dr Rogers, with love and devotion, we, the PHOENIX staff, dedicate this year's annual.

You are a great teacher, a wise counselor, and an inspiring person just to be seen on our campus. Your vigor and your constant emphasis on character and scholarship will always be standards for us to adopt as our own and to pass on to others as we find our places in service.

When our time comes to accept the challenge of leadership of youth and when we shall be helping to shape the destiny of the world,
we aspire to your ability to serve with humility.

Far up in the mountains azure

Overlooking Reinhardt's 520 acre farm.

Unrestrained by the confining limits of a classroom, the college pond offers release for thoughts.

The search for beauty leads beyond the world of man.

Hours spent in study are hours never lost.

Blest with ideals true,

A time to pause, catch your breath, and turn all thoughts to God.

With influence most inspiring, Reinhardt, we love you.

Miss Mary Culler White: "steadfast . . . always abounding in the work of the Lord."

The search for Truth.

Beauty enhanced by familiarity.

In thy splendor stand forever

Symbol of "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

The creation of a Christmas mood through song.

Spread thy fame afar,

Lend to all a helping hand

Circle K projects include community service.

Food and fellowship bring sophomores and freshmen closer together.

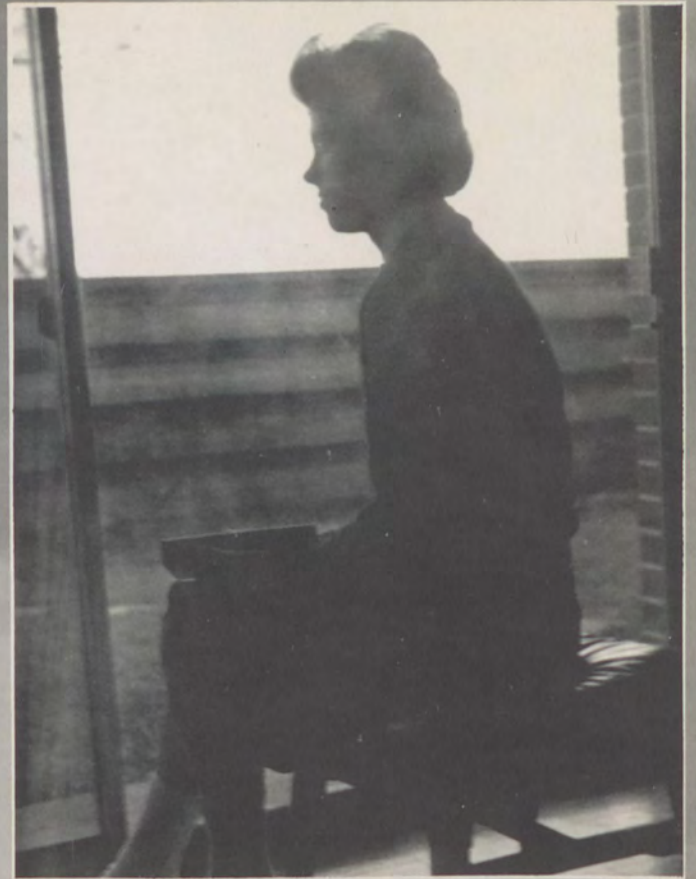

Be our guiding star.

Tonight, memories linger and dreams will awake.

*In thy memory cherished ever,
We will loyal be,*

Intense interest in work overcomes youthful whims.

A sanctum for reverie.

*May each year bring forth more honor
Is our hope for thee.*

Having received much, we go forth to give.

*We will praise thee, ever praise thee,
Be always sincere;
We'll uphold thy purpose high,
Alma Mater, dear.*

WHO'S WHO

The following students, according to the faculty, are representative Sophomores in various areas, such as scholarship, personality, character, ability to get along with others, and dependability in accepting responsibilities.

JO ELLEN BELL

As president of the Student Government Association, Randall has been an excellent leader. He has also been active in the church-related organizations. His being systematic has enabled him to accomplish a great deal in activities that will make him a successful minister.

RANDALL GANUES

CECILE ADAMS

In addition to being an excellent student, Cecile is very active in her church in Canton. Her friendliness is an outstanding trait. Cecile plans to be a director of Christian education.

Why is Jo Ellen looking so solemn and pensive in this picture when her most natural self is expressed in smiling and being witty? Her friendliness, her ability to sing, and her leadership qualities will make many little children in the elementary grades proud of their teacher!

Probably Chester's most outstanding characteristic is his ability to speak. During his two years at Reinhardt he was active as an intercollegiate debater, winning several "best speaker" awards, as well as being a debater for the Pierces for two years. Chester plans to teach chemistry.

To think of Jackie is to think of a Christian student, who is always willing to help people, at the expense of neglecting herself sometimes. Her friendly smile and her ability to get things done on her own initiative will not soon be forgotten. Jackie plans to major in English and work in the church.

Christian character and scholarship are two of Elaine's most outstanding qualities. In her quiet and unassuming way she has served significantly in different organizations. Elaine plans to teach mathematics.

Among Lynn's outstanding qualities, we find quiet leadership ability, friendliness, and dedication to the job, whether in the business office, in the classroom, in the church, or in extracurricular activities. Lynn plans to be a teacher.

LYNN PHILLIPS

Being secretary to the registrar, dean of men, and coach requires dependability, accuracy, punctuality, and intelligence. Beverly possesses all these traits. Beverly's future plans include getting her "M.R.S. degree" in June and then a degree in medical technology.

BEVERLY YOST

LANNY WILLIAMS

Lanny is a worker. He is dependable. To ask him to do a job is the same as to know it will be done. He has proved his willingness, sincerity, friendliness, and Christian attitudes in all things. Lanny plans to work in radio and television.

BRUCE REED

Bruce is the quiet type, but at the same time he gets things done. Besides making excellent grades and being efficient as a work student, he has been active as an intercollegiate debater. Bruce aspires to be a physicist.

Miss Circle K

LYNDA HUGHES was selected as Miss Circle K on the basis of talent, modeling sportswear and evening wear.

Because Jackie is so friendly to everyone, because she gives so much of herself to Reinhardt, and because she serves in the Christian spirit, she has been chosen "Miss Reinhardt" by her fellow students. This is the highest honor at Reinhardt for girls.

BSU

AROUND THE YEAR

So many things come to mind now . . . Things which had become such a part of campus life that they almost went by unnoticed . . . the fun of seeing all the kids get together at mealtime . . . the chapel services with hearty singing and some memorable messages . . . and then the classes — started with prayer . . . the prayer meetings . . . and dates, wonderful dates especially with that special one. The parties, the basketball games, the debates, the snow. . .

If you would but lift your eyes unto the hills . . .

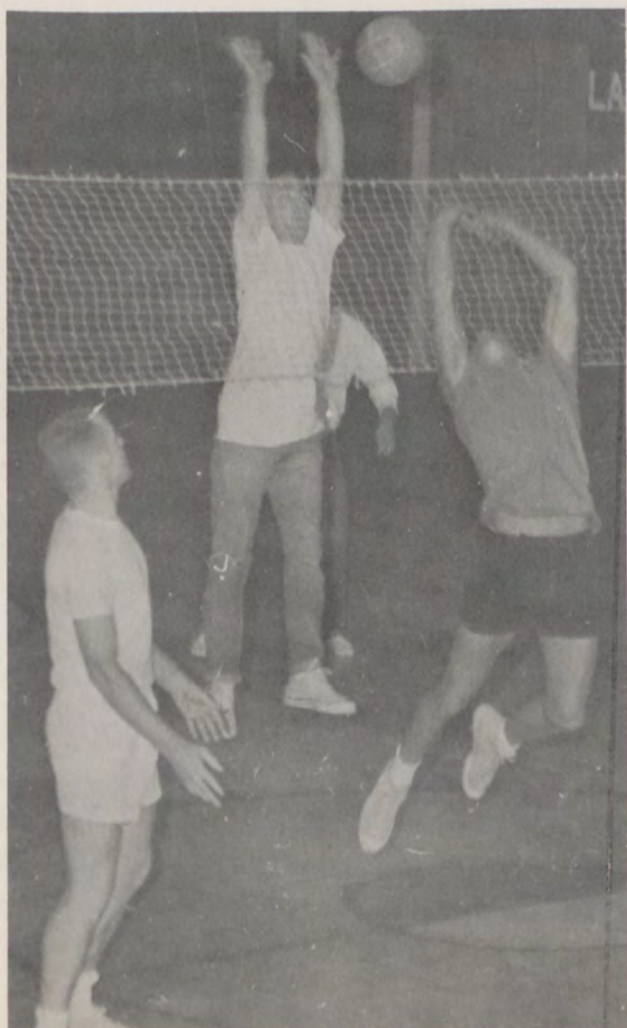

The freshness of the snow brings new vigor into the routine of winter.

Personality in expression.

Garland and the Mexican hat dance.

Basketball season finds fans at intramural games.

Fun, a shady tree, a good picnic, and it's time to go home.
