Beauty is the mark God sent on nature.

A happy, snow-covered hill affords moments of leisure.

By the millstream in solitude, we are least alone.

A Part Of All We Have Met

We're so thankful our college is "surrounded by the picturesque southern most especially because we can observe the distinct beauty of each season. The religious atmosphere at Reinhardt is realized even more because Nature speaks to us.

When the fields are yellow gold and the happy bluebirds summer time, too, when the students work on the campus help pay their way through, God is with us.

All these things help to bring a certain maturity to our lives; and perhaps for the first time, we begin to realize the purpose of our being.

Dedication

"The mother in her office
 Holds the key of the soul;
 And she it is who stamps
 The coin of character
 And makes the being who
 Could be a failure,
 But for her gentle cares,
 A Christian man or woman.
 Then crown her Queen of the world!"

---Anonymous

These three, "Mama Addleman," "Mama Nida," and "Mama Ruth," so endearingly called by the students, we are "crowning the queens" of the 1962 edition of the Cherokee Phoenix, for they have been our mothers, our friends, and our counselors.

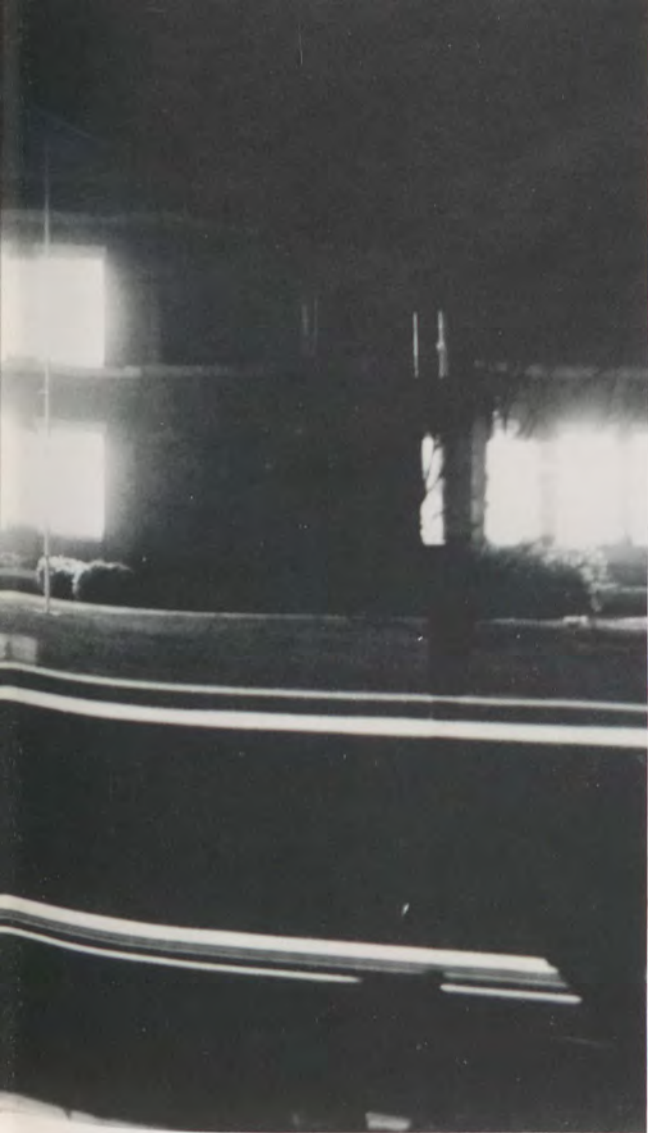

We shall not soon forget Mama Addleman's little original poems to remind the boys to make their rooms more tidy, Mama Nida's darning the boys' socks, and Mama Ruth's sharing her goodies, made in her own little kitchen, with her girls; nor shall we ever forget their love for students and their sincere dedication "in the service of the King."

Night time is dramatically outlined through lighted windows whether it is a night for study, for relaxation, or for romance.

Monday, Wednesday, and Friday finds students in the chapel listening to speeches, to concerts, to plays, or to sermons. (Photo by Fred Powledge)

In the 1820's, Sequoyah invented an alphabet of eighty-six characters for the Cherokee Indians. In 1827 at New Echota, Georgia, a weekly newspaper entitled the Cherokee Phoenix was published. In 1948, the Reinhardt students published their first annual and named it the Cherokee Phoenix.

God is everywhere at Reinhardt: at vespers, in prayer cells, in the class room, and on the campus. Students realize this even more when they graduate to continue their education or to shake hands with the world.

Spirit is aroused as cheerleaders open the Championship Debates.

These were the happy hours. . . "We're late! We're late!"

Enthusiasm, determination, and work makes one more appreciative of a college education.

Dado's thoughtfulness has made him a favorite among the girls.

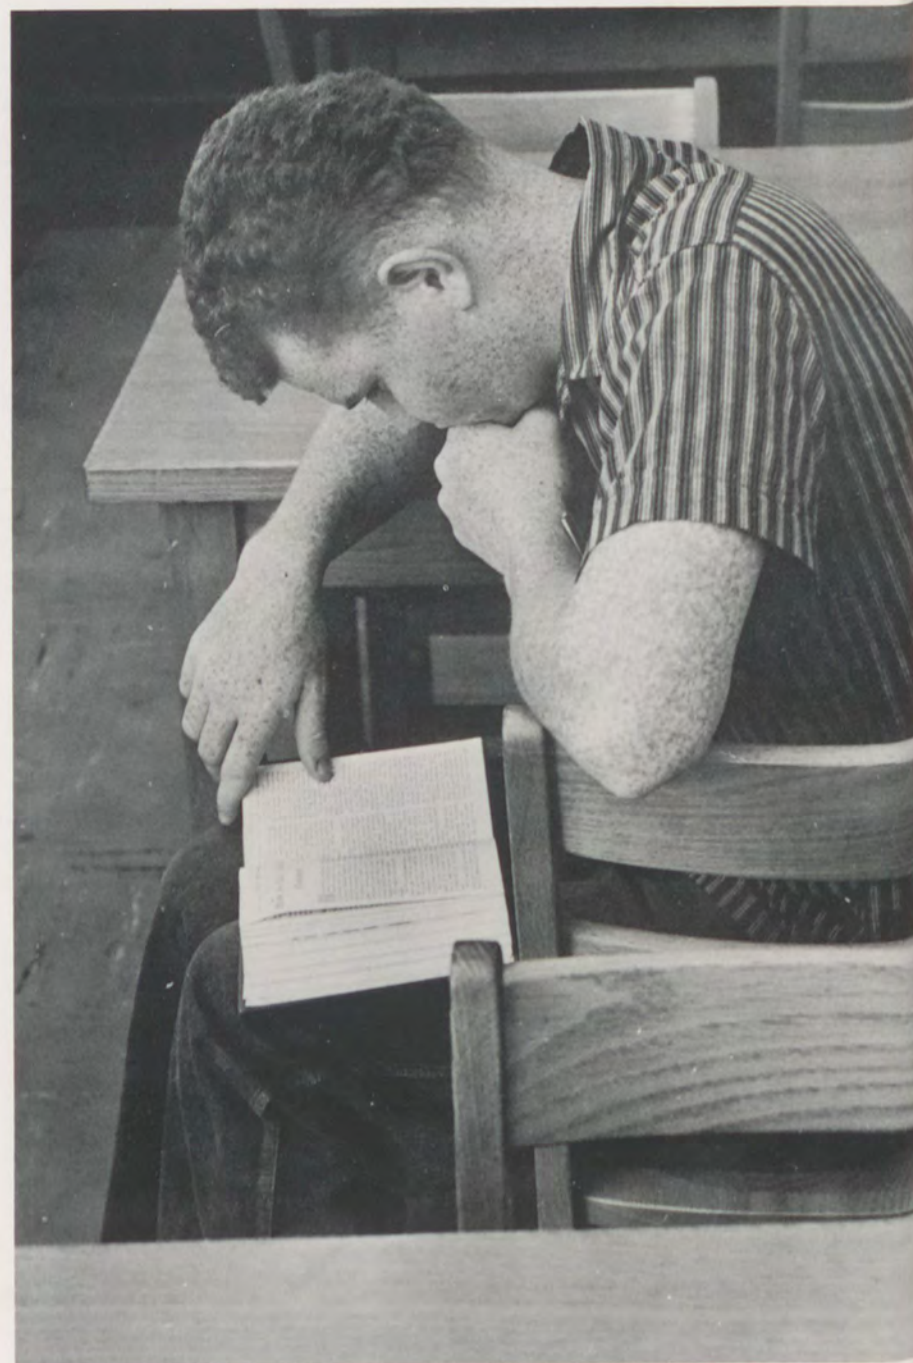

At the gay freshman reception, Glenda and Rosemary preside at the cookie tray.

All musical people seem to be happy, especially Mr. Stephen Kovacs.

The long registration lines, the walks to class, the fun in the snow, and the furious study sessions make the year complete.

The May pole winds up the end of the year as the freshman look forward to another year and the sophomores say goodbye.

The face enhances the language of the mind.

To the members of the Class of 1962

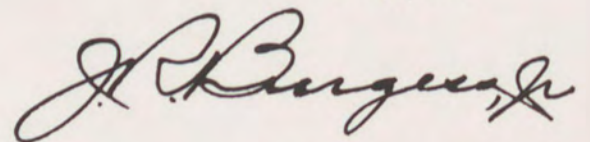

Your grandparents and great grandparents lived in a wonderful world of adventure. There were forests to be cleared, railroads to be built, and many things to be invented. There were also hardships to be endured, wars to be fought, and evils to be overcome.

Your parents remember the economic crash of 1929 and the Great Depression of the Thirties. Some were caught in the Second World War. But they thrilled to great advances in transportation, communications, housing, and recreation.

Today we live in a wonderful world. Commercial jets now fly at speeds greater than 700 miles an hour. Men have not only flown through space but have orbited the earth and will some day fly to the moon. Within a few years, space trips across continents and oceans will be as common as jet flights are today.

Of course there is much fear, bitterness, poverty, and tension in the world. It would be easy to spend all of our time worrying about these problems. How much better it is to enjoy the wonderful things of life, to share generously with others, and to work positively for the betterment of all mankind through faith in God and dedication to the ideals of love and unselfishness which Jesus taught.

Sincerely yours,

J. R. Burgess, Jr.

The intramural program at Reinhardt consists of sports and activities that are participated in by students on a voluntary basis with physical education credit give. The four girls' teams--Choc-taws, Tallulahs, Pawnees, and Sequoyahs--com-pete in softball, volleyball, basketball, and ten-nis, while the four boys' teams--Cherokees, Apaches, Seminoles, and Mohawks--compete in softball, baseball, track, tennis, flag football, volleyball, and basketball. Tournaments are set up and directed by Coach Collins and his assist-ants. Trophies are given to the best teams, and the most valuable girl and boy player are chosen at the end of the year.

The captains shake hands as the game gets under way.

Brenda returns the ball to keep the game alive.

Coach Collins and Henry both agree the pitch was a ball.

IN APPRECIATION

The Cherokee Phoenix would have been incomplete without the assistance of the following: Mr. Fred Powledge, Atlanta Journal; Rev. Alfred Hanner, Pastor, Kennesaw Methodist Church; Miss Carolyn Carter, a photographer for Scenic South; and Mr. Buddy Alexander, a photographer, Canton, Georgia.

We, the Phoenix staff, would like to tell you how much we have enjoyed working on Reinhardt's yearbook. We hope you enjoy it now and also all the years to come.

(A SIGNAL FROM A BANKER SEARCHING FOR CAREERMINDED YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN)

SATISFACTION

FEW FIELDS OFFER A MORE WORTHWHILE OCCUPATION THAN BANKING. A BANKER SPENDS MOST OF HIS TIME USING HIS TOOLS OF CREDIT AND MONEY MANAGEMENT TO HELP INDIVIDUALS, BUSINESSES, AND COMMUNITIES GROW AND PROSPER.

OPPORTUNITY

AS BANKING HAS BECOME MORE USEFUL, IT HAS DEVELOPED THE NEED FOR AN INCREASING RANGE OF SKILLS. BANKS TODAY, MORE THAN EVER, REALIZE THE VALUE OF WELL-TRAINED YOUNG PEOPLE OF HIGH CHARACTER. STARTING SALARIES IN MOST BANKS ARE NOW EQUAL TO THOSE OF ANY INDUSTRY. AND ADVANCEMENT IS GOOD FOR THOSE WHO SHOW THEIR ABILITY.

SECURITY

A CAREER IN BANKING OFFERS THE STABILITY AND PRESTIGE THAT ARE BUILT INTO THE BANKING BUSINESS. MANY BANKS NOW PROVIDE ADDED SECURITY BENEFITS THROUGH PENSION, PROFIT SHARING, AND INSURANCE PROGRAMS.

THESE ARE JUST A FEW OF THE REASONS IT MAY PAY YOU TO TALK WITH A BANKER BEFORE YOU CHOOSE A CAREER.
