DEDICATION

We choose for the dedication of our yearbook one who is deserving of recognition--Mrs. W. J. Smith, a person dedicated to her principles, her family, the community, and all the students of Reinhardt College.

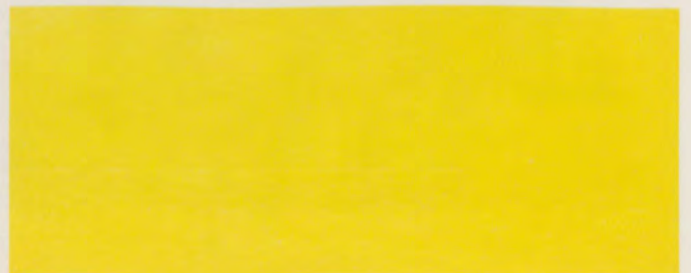

Mrs. Smith possesses many admirable qualities--courage, wisdom and patience. These qualities, which stem from an infinite Christian faith, stand out in all her actions.

The 1967 Cherokee Phoenix wishes to honor Mrs. Smith with its dedication as a token of its gratitude for the influence which she has had upon the students of Reinhardt College.

THE CHALLENGE TO ACHIEVE

The Great Designer gave man alone the capacity for inspiration and ambition, nobility and dignity. In a world of scientific wonders and achievements, no atom with all its force to destroy could conceive an idea, build a structure, entertain compassion or charity or hope. Only to man came this endowment of intelligence. The challenge to achieve is ours to accept.

"Ask, and It Shall Be Given You; Seek, and Ye Shall Find; Knock, and It Shall Be Opened Unto You."

Matthew: 6:7

The establishment and preservation of traditions such as Initiation are vital to the character and personality of the school and its students.

"What you look for in life, you will surely find; but the direction in which you look is up to you."

Author Unknown

The college student must have some diversions from scholastic pressures. Through extracurricular activities he develops socially and finds an escape from academic worries.

"He Who Has Ceased To Learn Has Ceased To Live. He Only Exists."

Guy de Faur Pibrac

With a realization of responsibilities--a sudden searching for one's aims in life--the student faces the hopes, uncertainties, disappointments, and fulfillments of the future.

Guidance

Administration

"Who dares to teach must never cease to learn." Reinhardt's professors have accepted the challenge of teaching as one of the paramount jobs in our modern, space age civilization. They have spent much time and effort in preparing themselves for the responsibility of educating America's young adults. Here at Reinhardt their dedication is shown through hard work and their faithful concern for Reinhardt students.

"A true education--what is it? It is awakening a love for truth; giving a just sense of duty; opening the eyes of the soul to the great purpose and end of life. It is not so much giving words, as thoughts; or mere maxims, as living principles. It is not teaching to be honest, because honesty is the best policy, but because it is right. It is teaching the individual to love the good, for the sake of the good; to be virtuous in action, because so in heart; to love and serve God supremely, not from fear, but from delight in his perfect character."

Organizations

Activities

"Others are affected by what I am and say and do. And these others have also these spheres of influence. So that a single act of mine may spread in widening circles through a nation of humanity."

William Ellery Channing

Student activities at Reinhardt are varied. Its clubs offer opportunities for leadership, service, recognition and development of individual abilities.

At Reinhardt, students feel that extra-curricular activities play an important part in their college lives. Clubs and activities develop a student's civic and moral standards and help to train leaders of tomorrow.

Features

"Forethought and prudence are the proper qualities of a leader."

Tacitus

One cannot become a leader overnight. He must work and strive to become a good leader. Students at Reinhardt have unlimited abilities.

Good citizenship is vital for everyone-- whether the leader or the follower. The good citizen sets an example for others to follow. One must strive to be not only a good leader, but to be a good follower. The good citizens and leaders of college will soon be the adult leaders of tomorrow.

Scholarship

Classes

"Knowledge is power." We at Reinhardt gain knowledge through academic resources. Our resources for gaining knowledge are many. It is not only through our curriculum but through our relationships with others and our own personal experiences that this knowledge is gained. Most important in our effort to seek an education are the professors who strive to furnish knowledge for all students who sincerely search for it.

Knowledge is everywhere; but we must seek it and use it to the best advantage.

From the shy, frightened freshman, who must stand on his own two feet for the first time, to the hard working, experienced sophomore, Reinhardt students have worked together to make this year 1966-67 one of the most fruitful years Reinhardt has even experienced.
