Cherokee Phoenix 1978

Waleska, Georgia

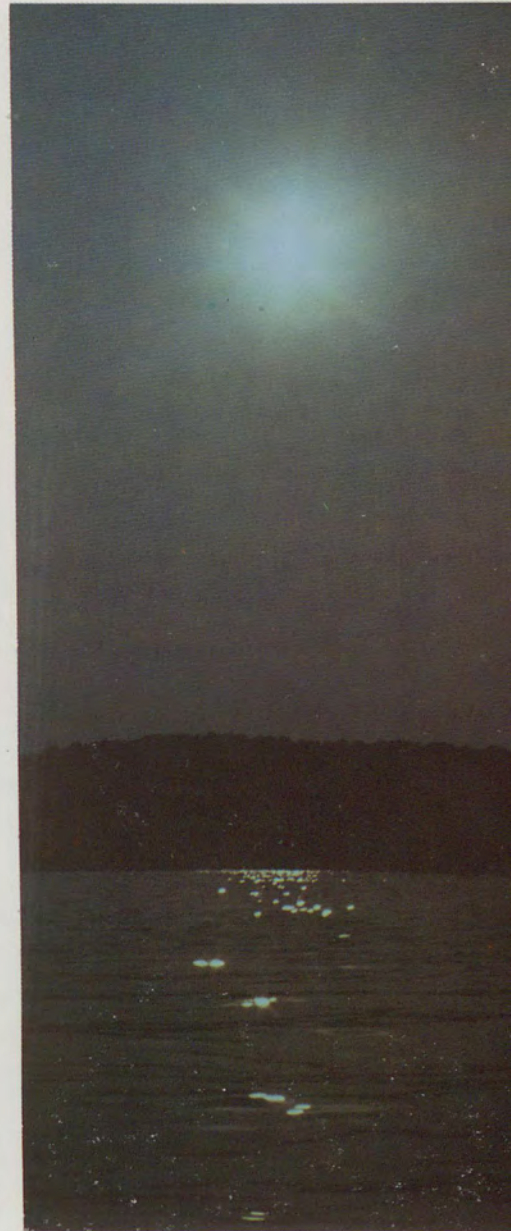

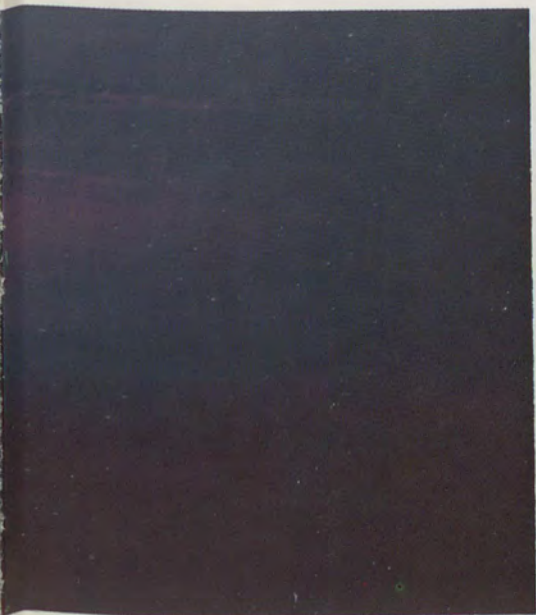

*Life - so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away*

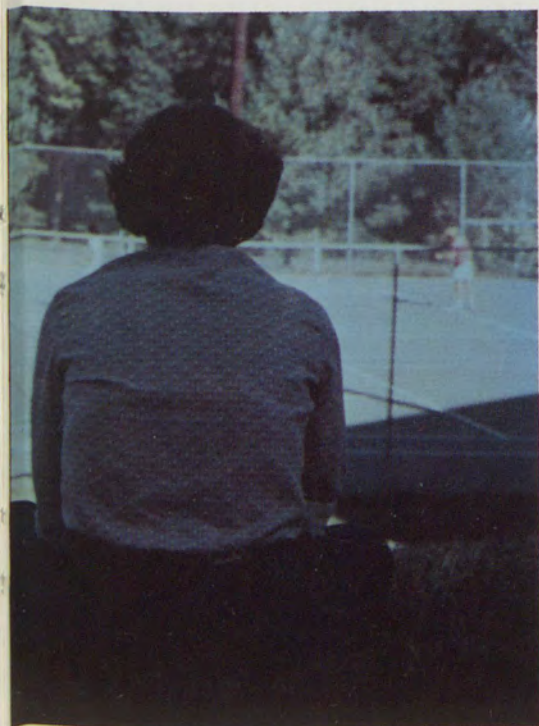

*Love - like the Autumn sun
Should be dying but it's only just begun*

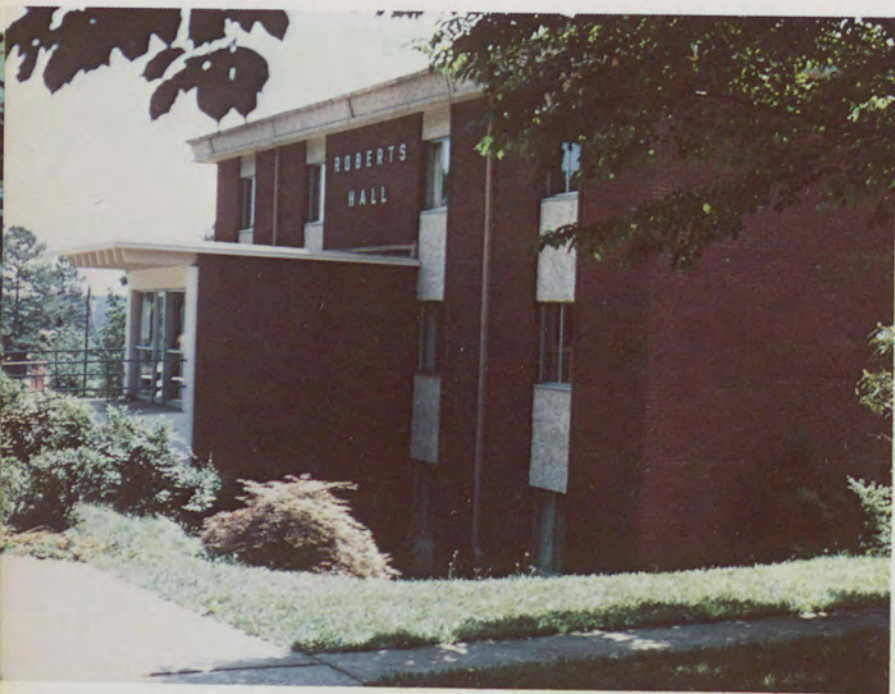

*Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're goin'*

*And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go
And take us up, always up*

We may never pass this way again

*Dreams - so they say
Are for the fools and they let them drift away*

*Peace - like the silent dove
Should be dying but it's only just begun*

*Like Columbus in the olden days
We must gather all our courage up*

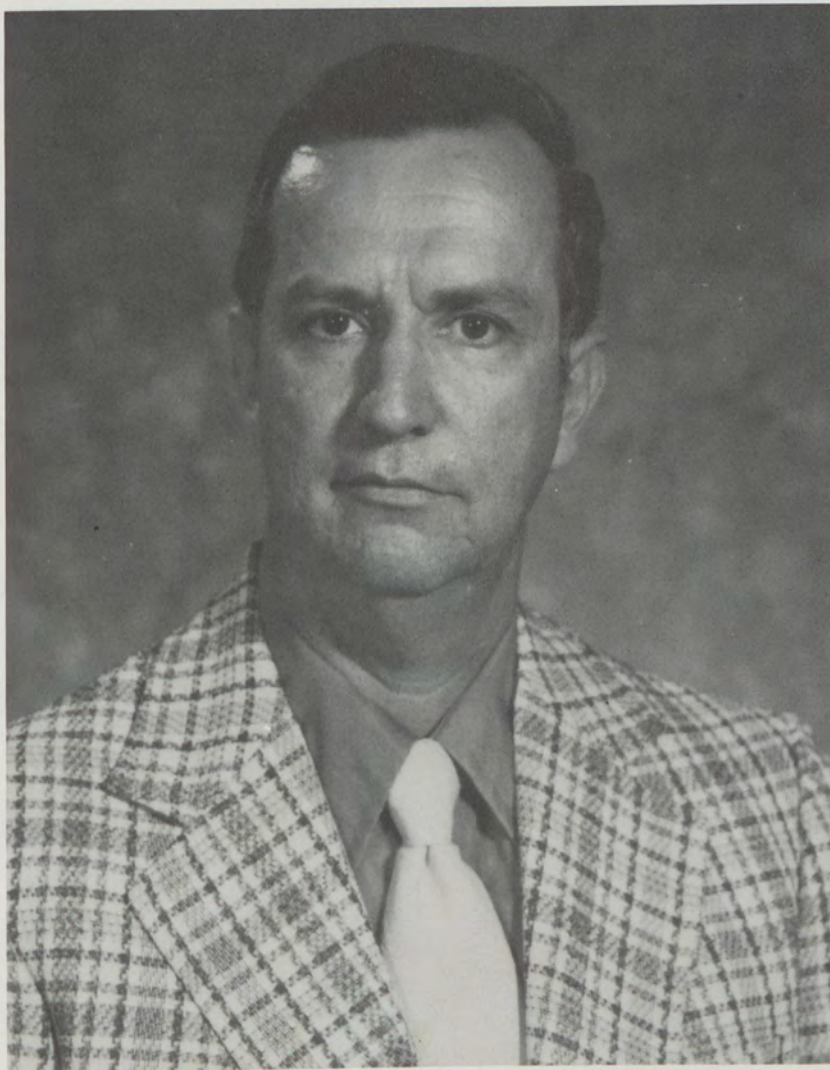

*Sail our ship out on the open sea
Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go
And take us up, always up*

We may never pass this way again

Alphas are Sisters that love and care, individuals that live for today, laughter and tears, and a group that meets their goals regardless of what confrontations they must overcome. Many times we almost didn't make it, but given a challenge we'll make it a success, or we'll try until it kills us. We live for today and hope for tomorrow, and somehow I think we'll make it.

The sisters of Phi Delta Chi are a group that enjoys living—that's what life is all about. We do this in different ways, enjoying the out of doors, decorating a Christmas tree, being first in the dinner line, these are a few of the ways, but sharing our friendship is one of our favorites. Each of us is a separate person, yet we're connected by our concern for the interest in one another. This "separate but together"ness has helped us to make some priceless friends—friends who allow us to grow in our own way and are still there to share the tears as well as the laughter. We grow together and we grow apart, but we grow as ONE, and that's what makes being a Delta worthwhile.

And we could never forget initiation, the parties, helping a brother with an all-nighter before the big test, and "chowin' down" in the middle of the night at Harrisons.

Sigma Phi Nu Fraternity stresses brotherhood in all activities. We feel that we're an elite group on campus. Each member has great respect for the fraternity. Phi Nu keeps close ties with their sisters. Sigma Phi Nu members enjoy the freedom a college student should have, along with the responsibilities that fraternities have. Athletics is a vital part of a NU-men's stay at Reinhardt. Team participation and brotherhood are key elements. Not always victorious, we take our lumps and bruises together and when we win we all are actively a part of the celebration. Brotherhood, Participation, and fun is what Sigma Phi Nu is all about.

William Henderson, Athletic Director

Organizations

Student Government Association

SGA is not tradition nor is it run by the wealthy. It is run by people who want to care. SGA stands for Student Body, interaction, and interest. Concern of goals and values is what it takes to build a strong organization. Only those who are interested in Reinhardt can make this chance a reality. With help from everyone our progress will be tremendous.

Judicial Council

Each year the President of the Student Body appoints three student members to the Judicial Council. The President of the College also appoints two faculty members to serve on the council. Under the leadership of Dr. Alan Allen, students, faculty and administration weigh all evidence brought before them concerning violations of the personal code of conduct. This year the Judicial Council members are Dr. Alan Allen, Mrs. Margaret Lee, Melissa Brown, Terry Roper, and David Callaway.

Phi Theta Kappa is a National Honor Fraternity open to all students who meet the high standards of scholarship and citizenship set by this national group.

To be eligible for membership in Phi Theta Kappa, after the 1st quarter at Reinhardt a student must carry 15 hours and have a 4.0 grade point average. After 2 quarters or more a student must carry as 3.5 average and be in the top 10 percent of his class. After becoming a member, a grade point average of 3.0 must be kept.

This year Phi Theta Kappa has become more involved with students as well as the faculty. We started a new tradition with the annual Great Pumpkin Carving Contest. We have sponsored Panel Discussions involving faculty as well as the annual Sweetheart Dance involving the whole student body.

The College International Students Club was organized in Fall, 1977 when the number of international students increased. The club's objectives are to establish closer friendship among international and national college students, to assist its members in adapting themselves into a "New" American Culture, and organize activities (e.g. sight-seeing tours, cooking of International food, etc.). The club arranges for its members to participate in the International Students Conference held yearly in Toccoa during Thanksgiving and in the International Friendship House for Christmas.

The goal of the writer is to bring the perceptions of the inner mind into focus and then put the words on a page that tells a story. In a sense we all are writers, but only a few manage to put the mechanics of writing together. That is the purpose of Chi Delta Phi: encouraging those who are outstanding in literary talent toward the goal of a writer.

Prayer Breakfast

Prayer Breakfast at Reinhardt is a traditional occurrence on our campus each Wednesday morning at 7:55. I have been fortunate to co-sponsor this event with Dr. Jernigan, President of the college. Prayer Breakfast has often been referred to as an outlet for Christians of all religions to come together and have fellowship. The speakers have been meaningful and a blessing to my life and each member attending. God has blessed us with a good tradition of sharing fellowship.

Bryan K. Finch, Coordinator.

Tactful, open-minded, dogmatic, ambitious, dependable, considerate, loving and unprejudiced are but a few words that aid in describing the Black Student Society. Our purpose is to learn more about minority cultures and to do as much as we can to help improve them. We learn how to help these people by research and inviting speakers to inform us. To what degree we give aid and love to others is determined by each of our capabilities and all the experiences that have been fed into our minds from living.

The Bridge Advisors work together to achieve a basic goal: to provide an education and social opportunity for freshman students. The advisors work very hard at the first of the year to orient the students in course of study, goals, and career choice. The entire program gives an understanding and reality of Reinhardt College.

DAYBREAK POP GROUP: Gary Fowler, Grady Morris, Naoki, Alicia McClain, Andrea Pinder, Becky Watkins, Louis Hanna, Melody Holcombe, Susan Webb, Jack Whalen, Steve Tucker.

To sum up what choir means is a difficult task for one to do ... It's many sleepless nights and days that never seem to end. It is long hard rehearsals, and concert after concert on tour. But somehow it is all worth it to the musician, for even though the price is high, the rewards are many. As some of the members have put it:

"Very hard work, but rewarding and worthwhile."-Cindy Bailey.

"Expressing beautiful ideas through music."-Rena Reeves.

"Choir gives me the satisfaction of putting love and God to music."-Melody Holcombe. "Choir is 'fixing it'."-Sheri Sorrow. Most of all, however, choir is fellowship, a fellowship throughout all of the members which inspires each one of us to try to give their best for each other. It is a bond of trust and understanding, one that any choir member is very fortunate to be able to experience during their lifetime.

The Fine Arts League was organized to promote the Fine Arts on Reinhardt's campus. Sponsoring artists and various programs during the year gives members of the league a chance to meet and learn from other authorities in their areas of interest. It helps students to see art in another perspective by working with different projects not usually encountered in everyday classes.

Spring Formal-which one? The original formal was cancelled at the last minute and another had to be scheduled. A spring "informal" held at Lake Arrowhead was a success as Blackjack provided entertainment.

Graduation '77

As it draws to a close, everything falls into place and all the crazy things that had to be done begin to make sense. Graduation means leaving Reinhardt but not forgetting the happy times, sad times, good times, bad times.

So I wanna laugh while the laughin' is easy

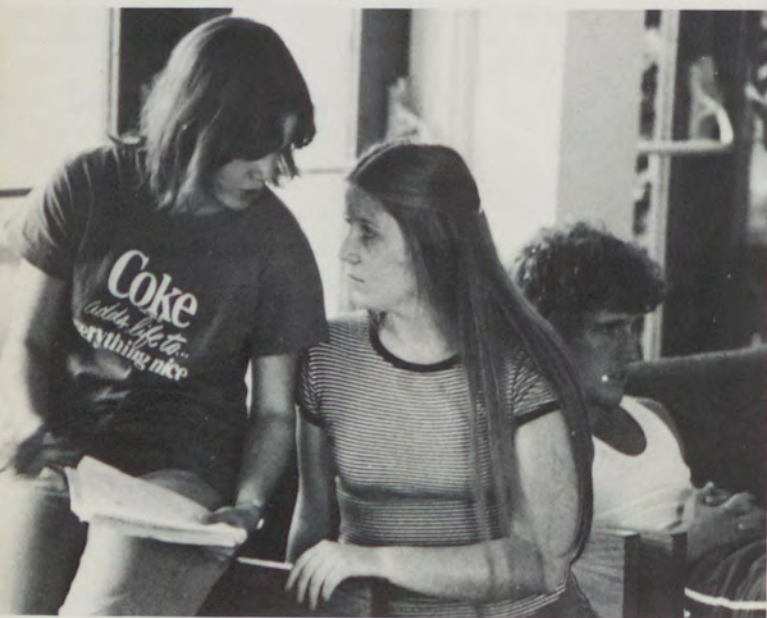

I wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile

*I may never pass this way again.
That's why I want it with you*

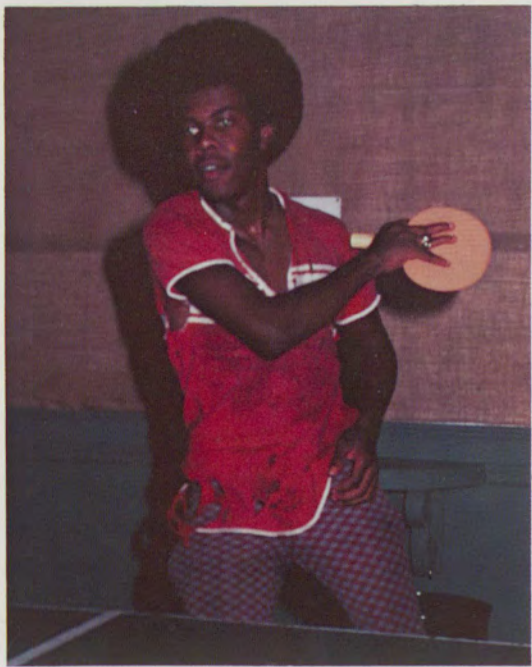

'Cause you make me feel like I'm more than a friend

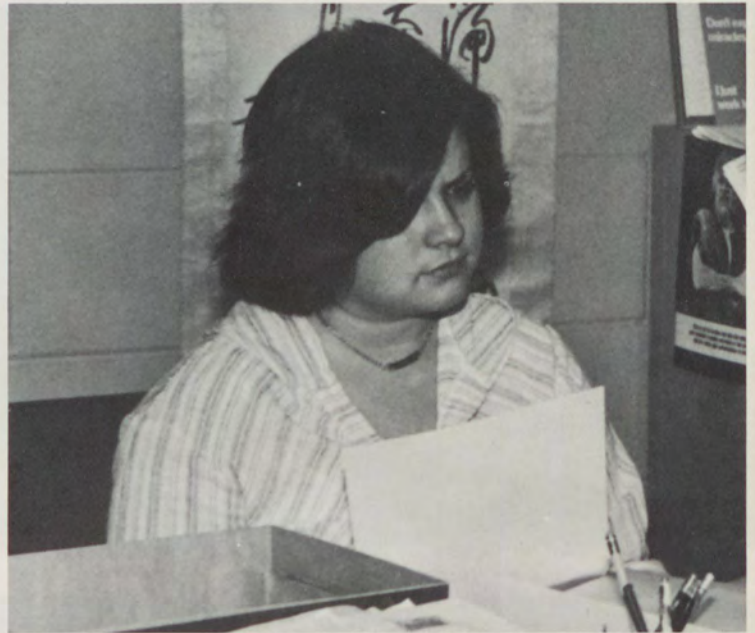

Like I'm the journey and you're the journey's end

We may never pass this way again

CANDY THOMAS, EDITOR

WILL BROWN, ASSISTANT EDITOR

The annual ... not as bad as I thought it would be ... having lots of good help from the staff ... deadlines and chemistry tests on the same day ... having Kathy run to the annual staff room because I already had my pajamas on ... everyone in the suite going to the Happy Kitchen, but I have a deadline due the next day ... worrying about what Mr. Lindsey wants to see me about when theatre class is over ... having trouble getting everyone together for group pictures ... carrying deadlines over to the bookstore for Mary to mail ... getting deadlines ready for Ross to come and check ... working at home on the ping pong table for the December deadline ... working on Saturday afternoons in the suite with Becky ... catching Ross up on the "news" while he is looking over the layouts ... SPECIAL THANKS TO ... my staff for their work ... Tony Pickens for all the many pictures he took ... Dan Land for the cover picture ... Dr. Burgess, Jack Williams, and the Admissions Office for extra pictures ... Dr. and Mrs. Jernigan for the use of their home for pictures ... my parents for supplying lots of love and support ... Mr. Lindsey for keeping me informed ... Ross Henderson for giving me help and encouragement that was much needed ... my roommate for putting up with a room full of pictures and layout sheets, late night typing sessions and for making me stay here and work when I wanted to quit ... and a very special thanks to God, my Best Friend, who always walks beside me ... it's been REAL!

Editor*
