Graduation '78

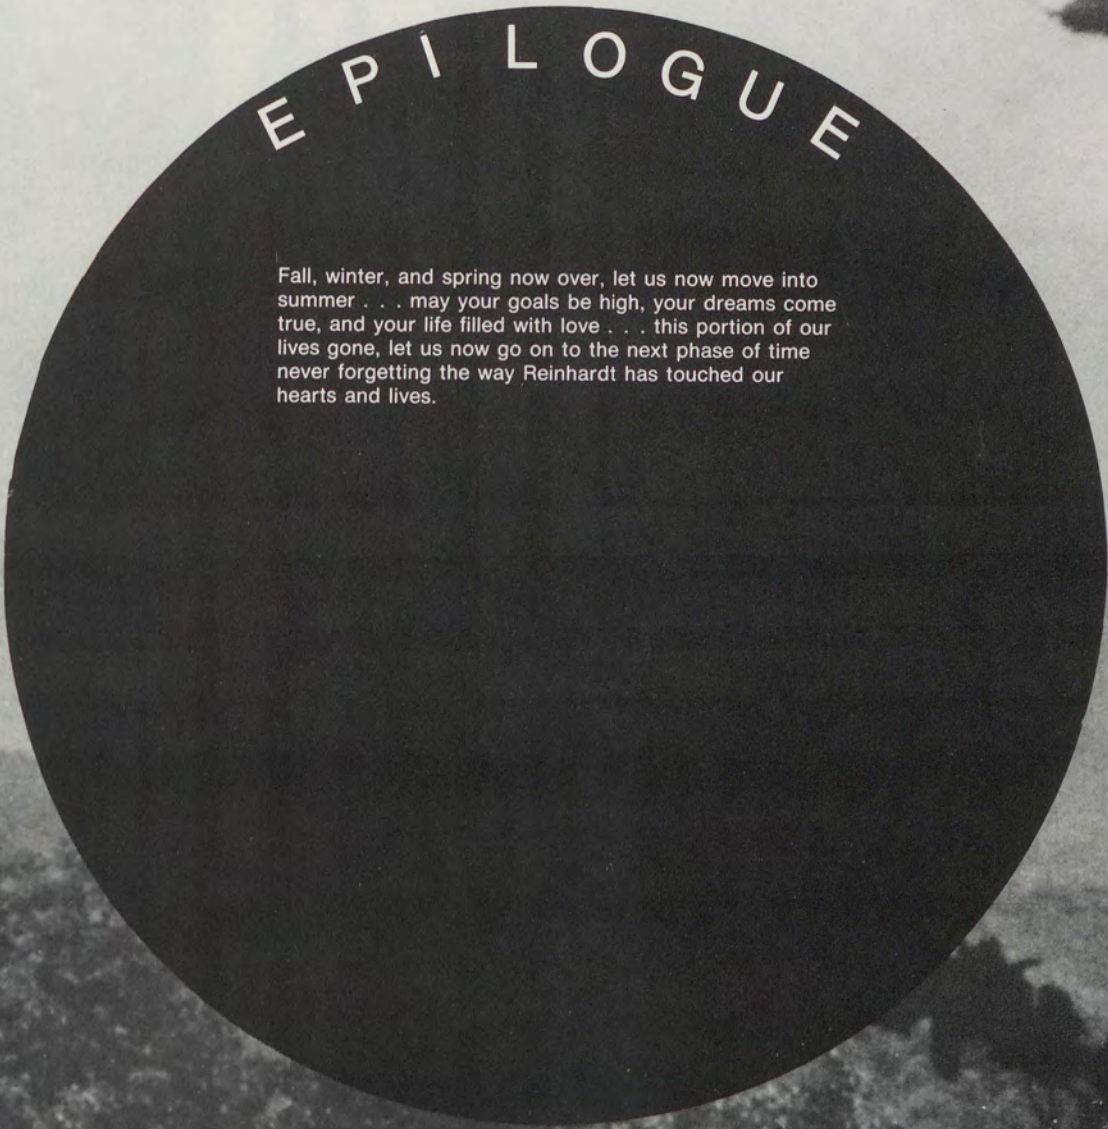

EPILOGUE

Fall, winter, and spring now over, let us now move into summer . . . may your goals be high, your dreams come true, and your life filled with love . . . this portion of our lives gone, let us now go on to the next phase of time never forgetting the way Reinhardt has touched our hearts and lives.

The seasons only make up the chronological year at Reinhardt. . .

... but the memories that we will carry with us and cherish ...

. . .consist of campus leaders who have helped enrich our college experience. . .

... teachers who we have learned to respect and admire as equals ...

...an administration which strives for personal contact with each student. . .

... and most of all, friends who we have come to think of as brothers and sisters.

Throughout the years, we will always remember Reinhardt as. . .

. . . a quality education

in a Christian context.

Once in a great while there is a person who isn't content to simply do their job. The extra effort they put into their work and their life set them apart as a special breed. Such is true of the person we're honoring this year. Her Official title is "librarian." However, the example she sets for students and faculty members alike makes her one of the most loved and respected individuals at Reinhardt. We proudly dedicate the 1979 Cherokee Phoenix to
