*Co-Editors: Robin Voyles

Advisor: Carolyn Burkholder

We begin expecting wonders from ourselves and from others. We begin a journey into a world only imagined before. We learn to play and to discipline ourselves. And we begin to mature. And we find that only we can produce the wonders. Here we gain the knowledge, the power, to make things happen. And we leave, a bit more mature than when we arrived, yet knowing that we've so much farther to go.

We begin expecting wonders

From ourselves and from others.

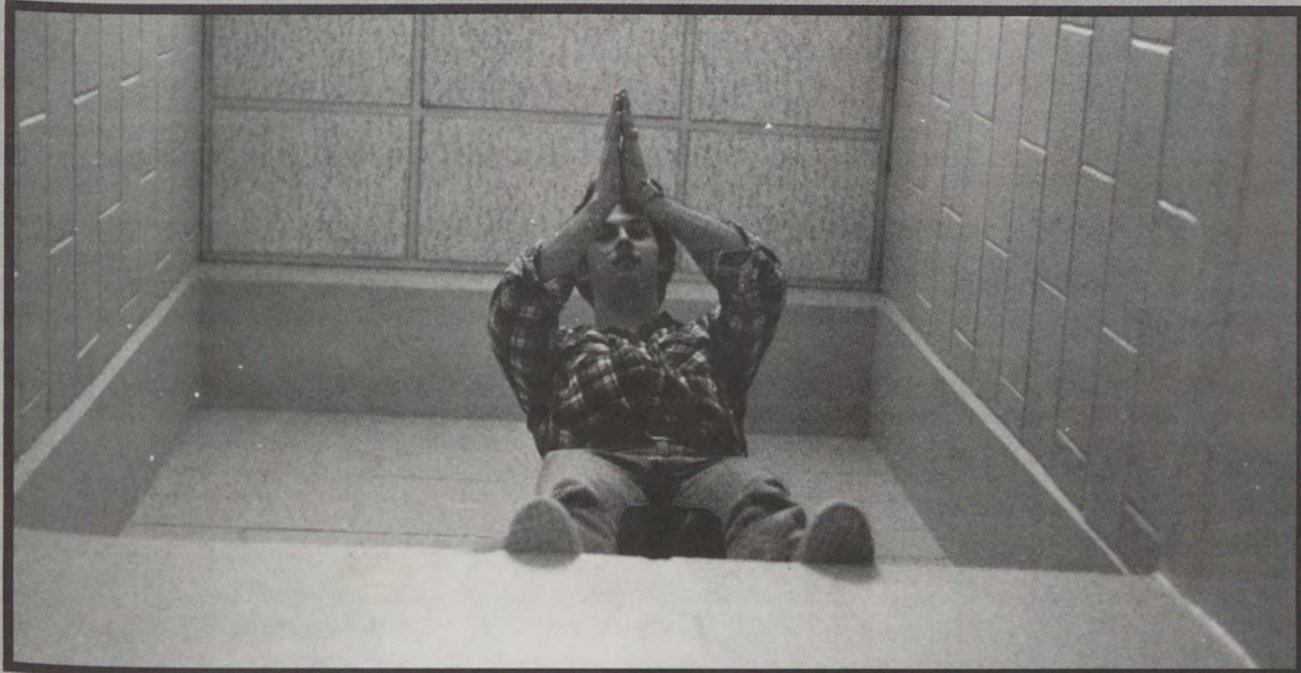

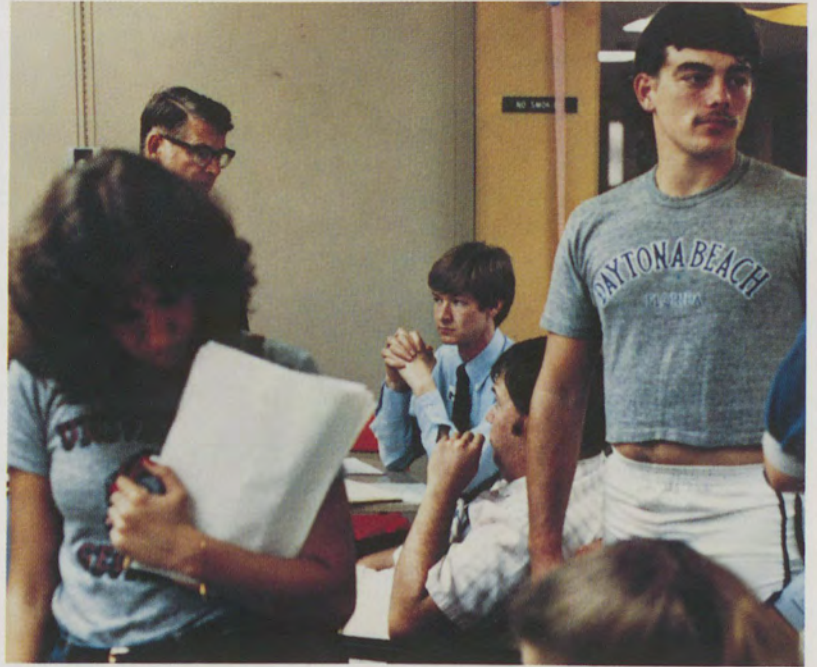

*We begin a journey into a

*We learn to play and to discipline ourselves.
And we begin to mature.*

1981-82 Cherokee Phoenix Dedicated to Mr. Curtis Chapman

Dedication - a good word to describe Mr. Chapman. He is not only a dedicated husband and father of two children, but a dedicated Christian, teacher and friend as well. The quality and goals in all areas of his life exemplify the goal of Reinhardt College - "in a Christian context." Students and colleagues alike have benefited from his genuine caring and concern.

The enthusiasm with which Mr. Chapman approaches life is an inspiration to all those he touches and has remained constant in his sixteen years at Reinhardt College. For these reasons, among many others, the 1981-82 Cherokee Phoenix is dedicated to Mr. Curtis Chapman, friend of all and true disciple of Christ.

*I believe in God, who is for me spirit, love, the principle of all things.
I believe that God is in me, as I am in Him.
I believe that the true welfare of man consists in fulfilling the will of God.
I believe that from the fulfillment of the will of God there can follow nothing but that which is good for me and for all men.
I believe that the will of God is that every man should love his fellow man, and should act toward others as he desires that they should act toward him.
I believe that the reason of life is for each of us simply to grow in love.
I believe that this growth in life will contribute more than any other force to establish the Kingdom of God on earth — To replace a social life in which division, falsehood and violence are all-powerful, with a new order in which humanity, truth, and brotherhood will reign.*

— Leo Tolstoy.

The publication of the 1982 Cherokee Phoenix ... what can we say ... deadlines ... trying to crop pictures ... working all weekend ... eating McDonald's hamburgers ... thanking God when Ross came ... debating over the dedication ... typing at the very last minute ... having a steady stream of visitors wanting pictures of their friends ... putting visitors to work, especially Ada, Kathy and Maria ... flying to the mail room to get our deadline certified ... getting lots of help from some very understanding people, our thanks goes to ... Dr. and Mrs. Jernigan for the use of their home for pictures ... Mrs. Burkholder for listening and advising us through some difficult times ... Ross for checking and correcting deadlines ... Mary for running to the Post Office and last but not least, Curtis Chapman for his understanding and concern ... And now the work becomes a reality as you open the book and recall many memories of the 1981-82 school year at Reinhardt. May God bless and keep you all eternally. That is our prayer.

In Memory of Matthew Kimsey

Occasionally, someone comes along who is a unique combination of both the things we all are and the things so many of us wish to be. Such a person was Matthew Kimsey.

Upon his entering Reinhardt in September, 1978, he was a prominent student. Not only did he contribute to both the music and art departments, but he also gave of himself to his friends, instructors, and fellow classmates. He was not only talented, but also possessed a sense of humor, self confidence, and optimism toward life.

HONOR'S DAY 1981

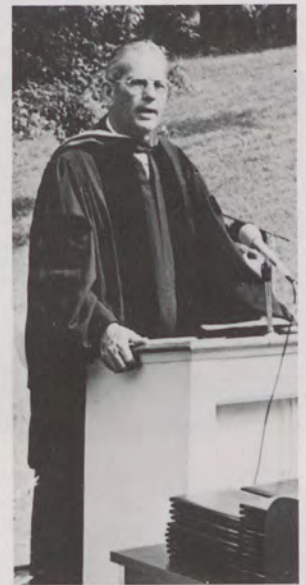

Each May there is a special recognition for those students who have excelled. Faculty members nominate students for outstanding work in subject areas and extracurricular activities. It is a day that involves many students' families in an effort to reward and encourage those students.

Graduation 1981

The Ninety-eighth Commencement exercises were held May 31, 1981 on the Reinhardt College campus. The Valedictorian was Tracie Teague and the Salutatorian was Ricky Long. Graduation represents many accomplishments and is an important step in one's life.

And we find that only we can produce the wonders.

Here we can gain the knowledge, the power, to make things happen.

And we leave, a bit more mature than when we arrived

Yet knowing we've so much farther to go.
