Dedicated to the Memory of Tom Jackson

TOM JACKSON

As a teacher he was demanding, fair, and considerate. As a husband he was faithful, thoughtful and loving. As a father he was inspiring, concerned and considerate. As a man he exemplified the ideals of Jesus Christ whose Great Commandment concerned love of God and our fellowman.

J. Rowland Burgess,
President Emertus

Dedicated to the Memory of Dr. J. Rowland Burgess

Dr. James Rowland Burgess

Seldom does one man give of himself to an institution and become so closely associated with it, that he becomes the embodiment of it. Such was Dr. James Rowland Burgess, "Mr. Reinhardt College." He was an author, educator, horticulturist, and President Emeritus.

From the very first day he set foot on the campus Dr. Burgess had been the heart and soul of Reinhardt College. He loved the college and it is not too much to say that the College loved him. He can never be replaced and he will be missed.

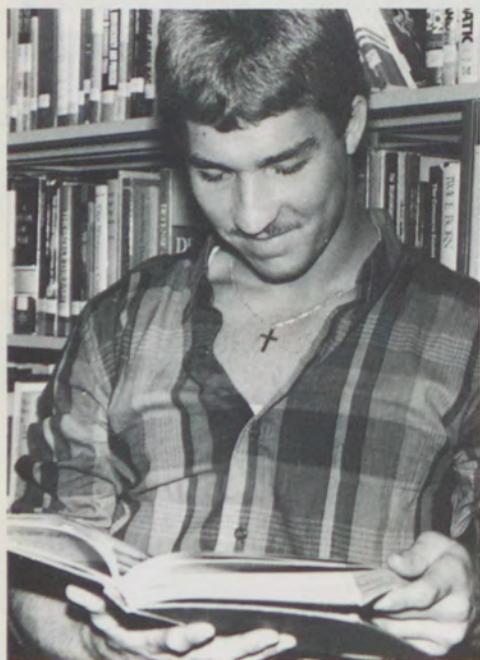

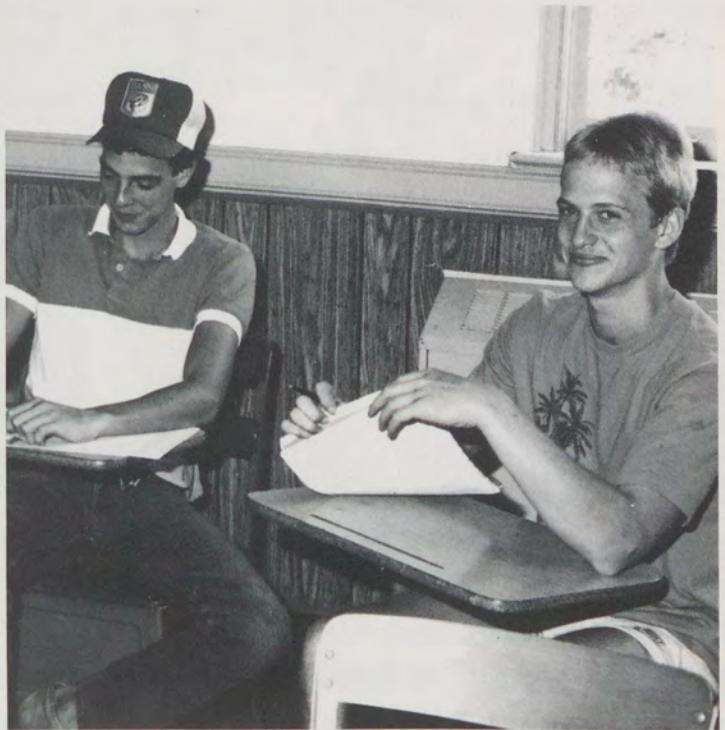

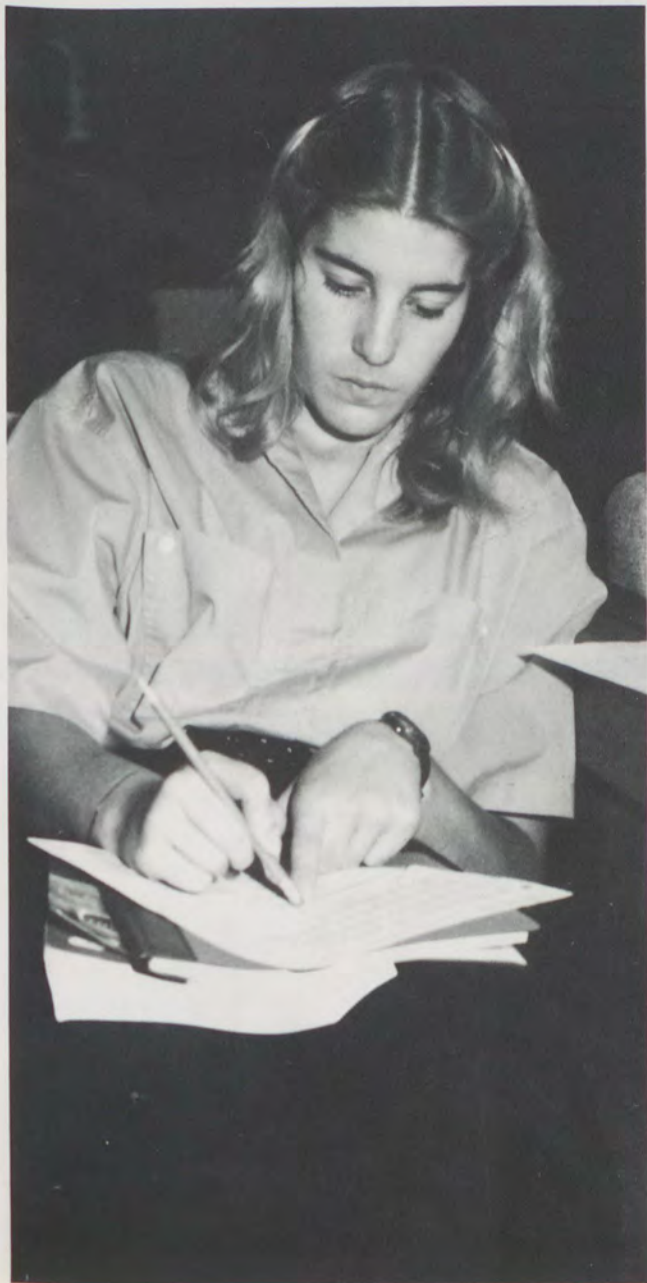

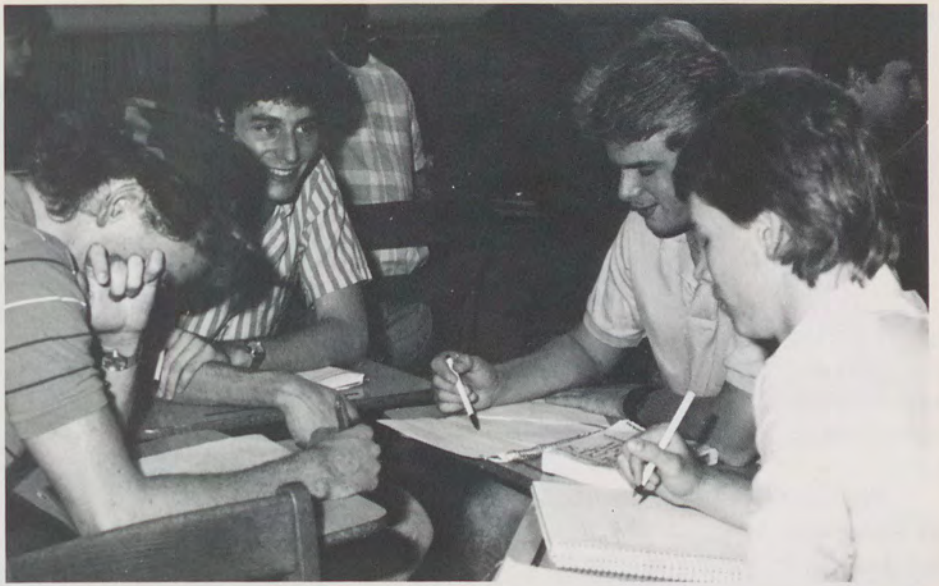

Bridge is the time in a Reinhardt College student's life when they must "Bridge" the gap between High School and College. Students must go through this in order to help them become familiar with the campus and their sophomore Bridge leaders. Not only is Bridge a special kind of orientation for freshman, but it also earns students an hour of credit toward HD classes!

At 8:00 am - life begins in Waleska, Ga. Students head toward the Handy Dandy Gordy Center to eat a "delicious and nutritious" breakfast! From there they must face the cruel world of Math 105 with Dr. Allen or Political Science with Jane England! Will this torment ever end?

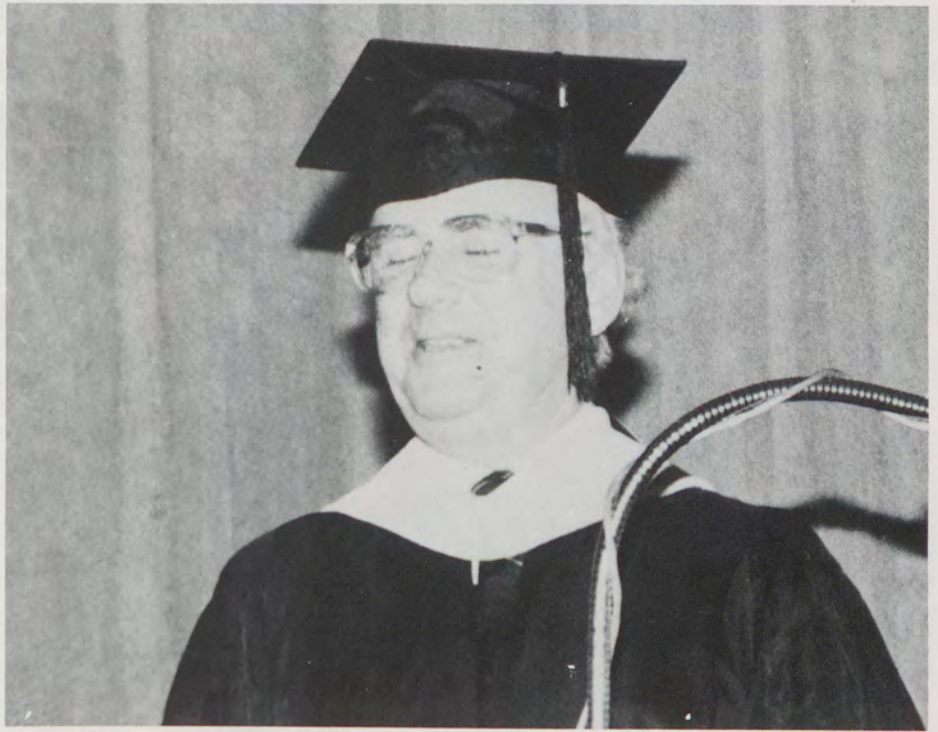

Opening Convocation

It is one of the grand traditions of Reinhardt College. Opening Convocation. The official beginning of the academic year. Our institution has had 103 of them and as always it was an event steeped in tradition and remembrance of the past and anticipation for the future.

This year's Opening Convocation was keynoted by Georgia Lt. Governor Zell Miller. It brought many guests — both alumni and friends — to the Reinhardt campus.

Opening Convocation reminds everyone of Reinhardt's long past and its bright future.

The rainfall on Reinhardt's Homecoming - 1986 - did not affect the spirits of the Alumni on this festive day. Many people worked many hard and long hours to prepare for the activities of Homecoming Day. Jo Ellen Wilson, Director of Alumni Affairs, is just one of the many who made it happen. For several years she has coordinated the homecoming activities. Some of the events that took place were the Fun Run, reunions, the Alumni Banquet, and the Homecoming Dance.

Outdoor Survival

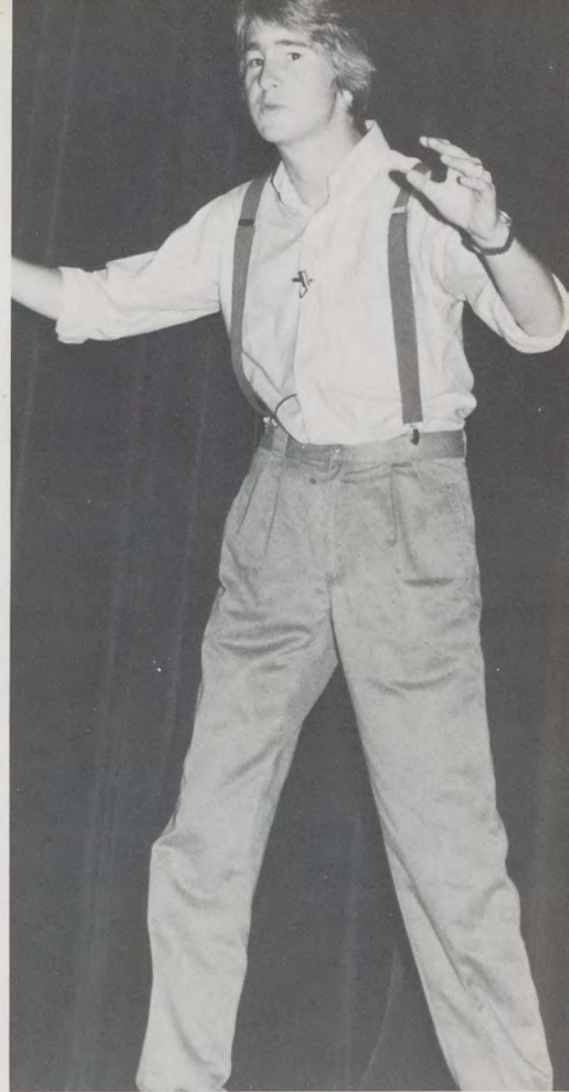

This year 29 brave Reinhardt students tried out their camping skills in the wilderness of North Georgia's Pigeon Mountain. The students had to participate in several different classes which taught them survival skills for the great outdoors. One of the classes was a search for a lost person in the wilderness. Thanks to the girls organizations and good leadership qualities the lost person was found. We gained a lot of knowledge and fond memories that we will never forget.
