Eagle's Nest Uglys or Super Fans

This year's yearbook is dedicated to a group of students who epitomize the theme "Mind, Body, & Spirit"-the "Eagle's Nest Uglys", better known as the Super Fans. These men and women painted their bodies, wore spandex, and encouraged the sports teams by showing up at every home game. Their willingness to be different and unique inspired fans and students to show their spirit.

The Super Fans used their minds with the creativeness of their costumes. Cowgirl hats, blonde wigs, painted faces, torn T-shirts, blue spandex, and old cheerleading uniforms were all part of a new tradition.

They painted their bodies blue and gold and showed up at every home basketball game. Their dedication to the Reinhardt athletic teams boosted the teams' morale and energy.

The spirit of the Super Fans abounded at every game and increased game attendance. At Homecoming, they emphatically proclaimed that "Life Stinks" and proceeded to ensure that the Men and Women's basketball teams were suitably encouraged.

Although the Super Fans will be losing charter members Lonnie Lacy, John Dunn, Chris Busby, and Kristin Rogers, the tradition of the Super Fans will live on.

Resident Manager

Being a Resident Manager gives me a lot of pleasure. I meet the most wonderful girls and I would like to think that I am their Mom away from home.

DeeAnna Parrish

Assistant Resident Manager

"One of the best things about my girls is how much they brighten my day every morning when they write stuff on my board. It can be something as simple as "hope you have a wonderful day", or when I've gone home for the weekend and they write "missed you". They are really special people. One of my favorite memories of my hall is when we got together to decorate for Halloween. It was so much fun and the girls really enjoyed it. They make my job so much easier, I don't know what I would do without them."

Resident Assistants

"All I have to say is: Use toilet paper wisely-save the trees and spare your RA from having to go down to the storage room every single week!! I love my girls!!"

- Sasha Malyuta

"I love being an RA! It's like playing MOM, but I only have to give the girls toilet paper, and they do the rest. They all make "momma" proud!"

- Andi Henry

"I love my freshmen girls! From their Tarzan man at Halloween to the Martha Stewart arts and crafts, they are the most fun, loving, and crazy girls in Gordy!"

"My hall is wonderful! We have a lot of fun together and I love all of them!"

-Karen Knight

I have enjoyed being an RA so much. My girls are wonderful and their friendships have meant a lot to me this year."

- Deborah Loyless

"What has made this year so special is when the classes are done for the day, I have the opportunity to sit with the girls and simply converse about anything from difficult situations to the most joyous of times in their daily lives."

- Lucretia Smith

Being an RA has changed my life! It has taught me the importance of helping and supporting others and creating a sense of community. The girls in my hall have given me a family away from home- thank you all for a wonderful year. To my friends thank you for brightening my life. To all the Residential Life Staff thank you for all your support.

Dealing with more than a dozen soccer players, with unlimited energy, 24 hours a day, for a whole semester, has not been easy; but it has been fun. I've enjoyed and learned from the opportunity.

Reinhardt Faculty and Staff

On May 22, 2001 the Reinhardt College Board of Trustees selected Dr. Charles E. Glassick as the institution's interim president for the duration of one year. Dr. Glassick took office on August 7, 2001 and his focus was on the fundamental aspects of the college. He was also focused on keeping Reinhardt moving forward by creating a situation where "a new president can become successful". Students, faculty and staff enjoyed having Dr. Glassick as a member of the Reinhardt family and wish him well in his next venture.

The Reinhardt Student

Activities Council (SAC) is a combined group of students whose purpose is to provide co-curricular activities for the Reinhardt community

The organization is student led, and is responsible for scheduling social, cultural, educational, and recreational programs and activities.

"SAC, had an awesome time this year planning campus activities, such as the Halloween Bash, Homecoming, Spring Day, and Spring Formal, as well as Coffee Houses and other monthly events.

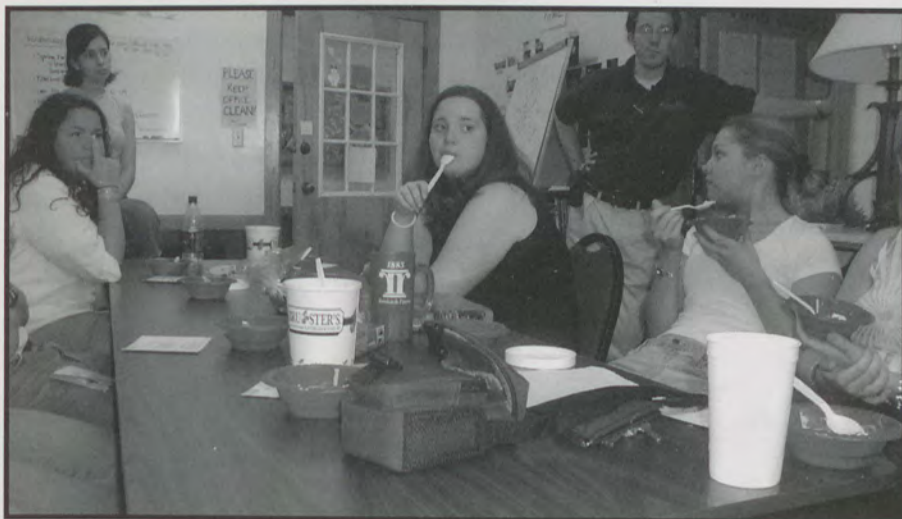

I was blessed to work with a team of very energetic and hardworking individuals.

Not only did we have fun planning everything, but we had a blast seeing all of our hard work finally pay off at the events! Now I would like to give a shout-out to all my SAC coordinators-Remember SAC don't SUC!" ~Leslie Dunn

Communications Club

The Communications club gives students the opportunity to interact with faculty and other community organizations that work everyday in the field. They hold monthly meetings in which they plan community job fairs. The communications club is planning a trip to the CNN Center to see what communication majors get to encounter and to see behind the scenes.

Reinhardt Captains

Reinhardt Captains allows Reinhardt Students to take part in welcoming new students to Reinhardt. The members give tours of the campus and they participate in the Graduation ceremony by ushering in the families and friends of graduates. These students offer insight to life at Reinhardt to prospective students and faculty.

Jay Whitmire converses with a potential student about life at Reinhardt.

Leslie Dunn shares her experience at Reinhardt with parents and high school seniors at Scholarship Competition Day.

Chris Foster chats with a prospective student over lunch in the Gordy Center.

Historical Film Society & Freshmen Scholars

Historical Film Society

This organization takes part in viewing and discussing high quality foreign, historical, and art films. Great films bring us into contact with poetry, prose, reality, fantasy and visual power of photography.

The mission of this organization is to enrich and deepen the cultural and intellectual environment on the Reinhardt Campus.

Freshman Scholars

This organization is designed for students who are bright, curious, and enjoy being challenged. Freshmen scholars enroll in three linked classes in the fall and spring of their freshman year with the same group of twenty-two other high-achieving students. The linked courses include: English, History, Sociology, Speech and all other required courses. This gives students the opportunity express themselves.

Film Society Member Jeff Holt stands beside a poster of his favorite movie.

Daybreak Ensemble

Daybreak Ensemble

Daybreak Ensemble is an organization which allows students to achieve their performance and rehearsal goals. This group of dedicated students meet once a week and they participate in trips where they perform at least two times each semester. This organization is open to music majors and non-music majors. The Daybreak Ensemble went on various trips this past year such as their trip to Jekyll Island and to many churches around Georgia. This past year for Daybreak Ensemble was definitely a success.

While visiting Jekyll Island for a concert, the Daybreak Ensemble members take time to enjoy the sunny August day.

The Ensemble has visited several churches to sing within the past year and their stunning voices have left a lasting impression on everyone.

These dedicated students have been so busy with singing lately they have not had any time to sleep.

Concert Choir

The Reinhardt College concert Choir members are as follows: First row (left to right), Allison Holmes, Tiffany Bryans, and Beth Neely. Second row (left to right), Jessica Burris, Patti Beckett, Whitney Smith, and Katie Bramlett. Third row (left to right), Tecia Pitts, Carol Grater, Nandini Nagrai, Anna Clark, and Youseline Vil. Fourth row (left to right), Stephen Adams, Brandon Castleberry, Josh Dove, Mike Turner, and Jacob Griffith.

The Concert Choir is the largest choral ensemble at Reinhardt. They have presented numerous concerts throughout the 2001-2002 year. During the fall semester the group dedicated its home concert in honor of Interim President and Mrs. Charles Glassick, and participated in the annual December holiday series concerts in the Hagan Chapel. Also, during the spring, the choir sang at the Holy Week Chapel service and they presented the first choral concert in the new Falany Performing Arts Center- A Celebration of Choral Sound- on April 19th 2002.

Cross Country

The 2002 Cross Country team had a very successful season. The women's team finished second in the GAC Conference, their highest placement ever. Freshman Christy Kay was a model of consistency as Reinhardt's top finisher in every meet. Kay also earned All-Region honors, a first for any Reinhardt runner as well as garnering All Conference status. Junior Stefanie Sanford also joined Kay on the All-Conference team. Sophomore Luke Seder led the men's squad in every outing and also earned his second straight All-Conference honor. Kay and Seder also established new Reinhardt records by running 21:23 (5K) and 28:21 (8K) respectively. Both teams will return six of their top seven runners, so I am optimistic about next season's results.

Cheerleading

The 2001-2002 Reinhardt cheerleaders introduced several new members and routines during the men's and women's basketball season.

During intense practices the cheerleaders learned countless cheers, chants, stunts, and dance routines. Even without a designated coach this group of talented individuals came together and created a tight knit group of athletes.

Taking on daring stunts and challenging dance routines the cheerleader displayed athleticism and endurance.

Through all of these the cheerleaders led the entire school in spirit, and unified the fans. This group has shown us the meaning of spirit.

Number 1

The cheerleaders get one of their routines started with this stunt.

Waleska on 3

Senior Athletes

Women's Basketball
Kellie Bearden, # 15, played for Reinhardt for two years after transferring here from Snead State. Kellie has played a major role in helping Reinhardt's women's team be competitive in the GACC.

Cheerleading

Amanda Durley and Elizabeth Monette were cheerleaders for Reinhardt for four years. Amanda led the squad as Captain and Elizabeth as co-captain for the past 2 years. Elizabeth quotes, "The will to win is not nearly as important as the will to prepare to win"- Bobby Knight.

Men's Soccer

Joe Aaron is the first Reinhardt soccer player to play all four years on the school's team. Captain for the past 3 years, Joe received Academic All-American for the last two seasons. Joe graduated magna cum laude with Bachelors of Science in both Business Administration and Biology. Joe quotes "Something I will never forget: 'As you walk through the storm, hold your head up high, walk on, walk on with hope in your heart and you'll never walk alone.'"

Cross Country

Kelly Linzie ran for the cross country team for three years and graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in Biology. Kelly was an RA and the Senior Representative on SGA. Her quote is "you're born, you die and if you're lucky you live somewhere in between."

Men's Golf and Basketball

Don Chestnutt played golf for Reinhardt for three years and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. Ken Dixon and Holcomb Burke both played on the team that finished 4th in the nation and both graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Sports Studies.

Jacob Travis and Andy Sharpe were captains of the Men's Basketball team. Jacob graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in Education and Andy graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration.

SOAR

The purpose of Student Orientation at Reinhardt (SOAR) is to allow incoming freshmen plenty of time to acclimate themselves to the new college atmosphere before the school year officially starts.

SOAR leaders arrive well before the freshmen and are trained in college policies. The freshmen arrive several days before classes start and are taught the college Alma Mater and many other useful things.

SOAR leaders entertain parents with skits from how to survive the "empty nest syndrome" to how to handle financial aid matters.

One evening of SOAR, freshmen and SOAR leaders are both entertained and controlled by a professional hypnotist. After being hypnotized, contestants were made to do all sorts of interesting tricks.

SOAR concludes with the Freshmen Induction Ceremony, where freshmen wear their alma mater t-shirts and sign the Reinhardt Code of Honor.

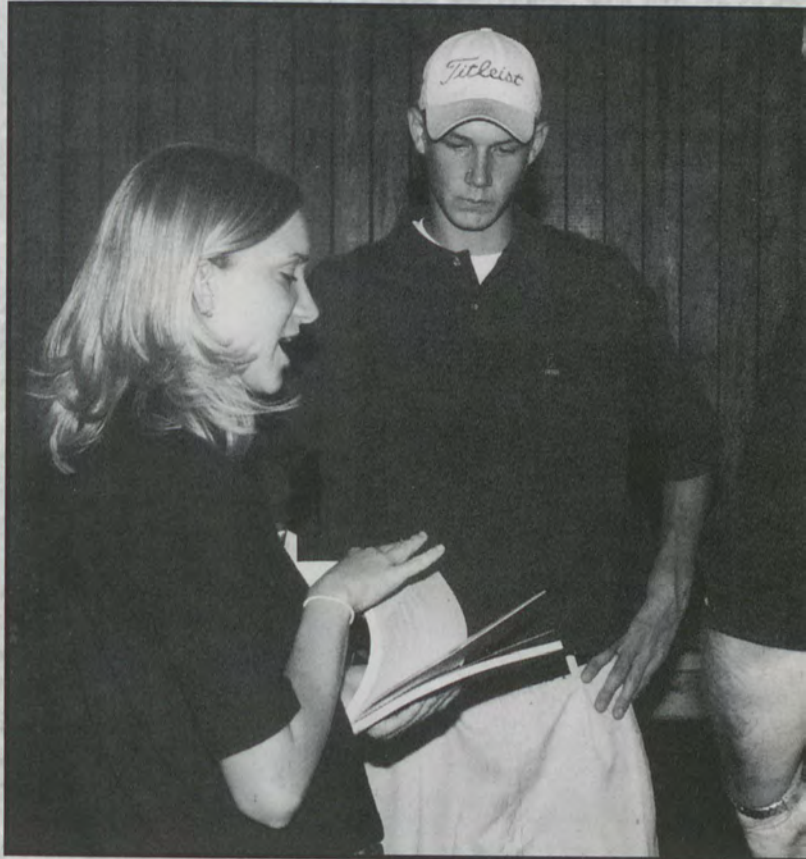

Freshmen and their parents registered for SOAR received catalogs and handbooks, and room keys before moving into the dormitories.

SOAR leaders climbed the rock wall as part of their SOAR leadership training.

Kristy Gayton explains the Reinhardt catalog and handbook to this freshman and his father.

Opening Convocation

Opening Convocation officially opens the school year. This year's speaker was Georgia Secretary of State Cathy Cox. She was sworn in on January 11, 1999 as the first female chosen for a state-wide post. Before becoming the Secretary of State, Ms. Cox was an Assistant Secretary of State for three years.

At Opening Convocation, Cathy Cox spoke about various topics that gave a new outlook to students and faculty. She compared the important things in life to rocks, sand, and water. The illustration says to put the most important things (rocks) as a first priority, then to fill the rest of life with other priorities. She also encouraged students to be registered and to vote.

Freshman Josh Dove presented special music and Dr. McRaney led everyone in the Reinhardt Alma Mater.

Parent Night & Talent Show

At the Parent Night and Talent Show, students showcased their talents for their peers and their parents.

At the Parent Night and Talent Show students showcased their talents for their peers and their parents. Students entertained the audience in many different ways. Some students performed songs that they wrote themselves while others played the guitar.

While Mary Parker tabulated the judges scores, the Reinhardt College Cheerleading squad made a special appearance. Chris Foster, Kendall Mize and the rest of their ensemble performed their own version of "Riverdance" to entertain the audience.

The event was emceed by Dr. Donald Gregory, judged by Marguerite Cline, Dr. Lee Cooper, and Joan McFather, and audited by Mary Parker. The nights' winners were Jacob Griffith in first place, Brian Puckett in second and Andrew Vickery in third.

Eat up

Students and parents were invited to enjoy a dinner buffet in the Gordy Center.

Showstopper

Jacob Griffith sang "I Can't Help Falling in Love with You" to his girlfriend in the audience.

Panel of Judges

Dr. Lee Cooper, Ms. Joan U. McFather, and Dr. Kenneth Wheeler judged the event and Mary Parker tabulated all the scores.

Emily Binkley and Anna Clark

Emily and Anna sang the Christian song "Be My Life".

Patricia Lynn Beckett

Patricia sang "Near you Always" by Jewel.

True Harmony

Tiffany Bryans, Tecia Pitts, Jessica Burris, and Shaleen Clark performed "What Will I Do?"

Tiffany Bryans

Tiffany performed "Kissing You".

Downplay

Mike Dotson, Anthony James, Josh Mikszan and Brett Lanier performed "Eveready".

Riverdance

Reinhardt's cheerleaders displayed spirit in a new way as they unveiled their Riverdance routine.

Michael Flatley Eat Your Heart Out!

Clearly Michael has nothing on Reinhardt's own Chris Foster's version of Riverdance.

Maya Burrell

Maya performed "Open My Heart", a spiritual song by Yolanda Adams.

Stephen Adams

Stephen started off the evening with "She Says".

Adrianna Martin

Adrianna sang a dramatic interpretation of "I Dreamed A Dream" from "Les Miserables".

The 2002-02 SGA and the Office of Alumni and Parent Relations co-sponsored the first annual Reinhardt College Founders Day on October 27, 2001. Founders Day was designed to celebrate the mission and heritage of the College in a fun and laid back atmosphere. Students, alumni, faculty, and staff were treated to a fun day of carnival activities including: ring toss, bean-bag toss, old-timey photos, sand art, button making, goldfish gettin', balloon darts, pumpkin-carving, hay rides and even a kissing booth! The Var sity restaurant also came and served a smorgasboard of hamburgers, hotdogs, onion rings, and frosted oranges.

During the festivities, SGA president Lonnie Lacy presented Mr. Curtis Chapman, professor of art, with the first annual Captain A.M. Reinhardt Award. This award will be given each year by the SGA to an individual who has shown sincere dedication to the mission, purpose, and life of the College. The day was fun for everyone involved and served as the beginning of a great new tradition.

Halloween Bash

Even Frank and Evelyn Gordy got into the Halloween spirit at the Halloween Bash.

The annual Halloween Bash consists of Trick or Treating for the community and a costumed dance sponsored by the Student Activities Council.

SAC volunteers did a wonderful job on decorating the Gordy Center for the Halloween Dance.

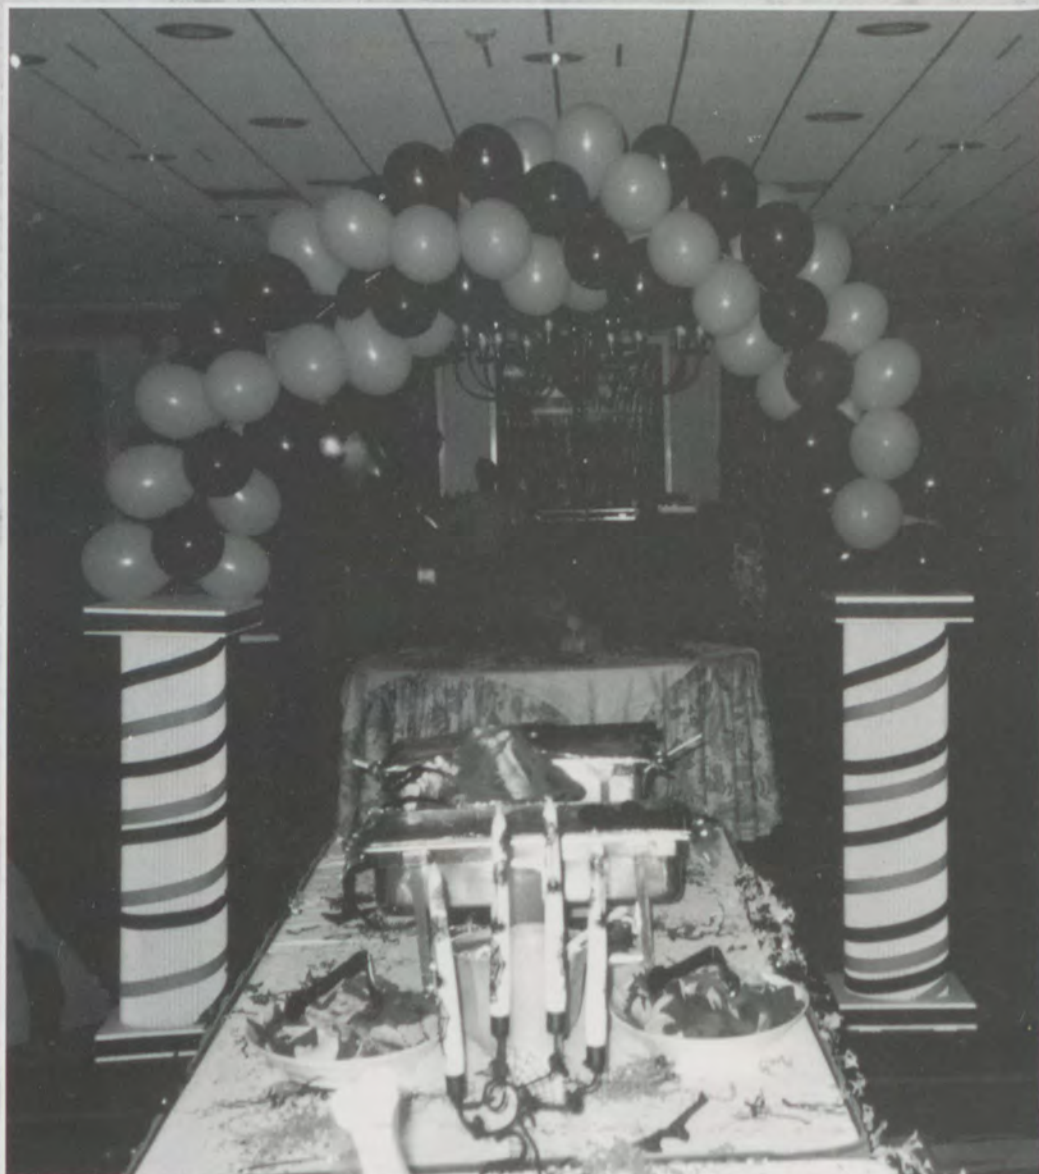

This year's Halloween Bash turned out some creative halls and some creative costumes from the students' minds. The residence halls were decorated with a wide variety of themes such as Disco, Heaven, Harry Potter, Paradise, Monopoly, and Mardi Gras.

The spirit of the community permeated the dormitories during the trick or treating. Costumed children from the Cherokee County area descended onto the residence halls for Trick or Treating, popcorn, apple cider, and pictures taken with the Chick-fil-A cow and some other well-known figures.

After the trick or treating, students danced to the music of DJ Gary Braner. The costume contest revealed some amazing and original costumes, as well as some traditional favorites.

Contest winners included: Elvira, Cleopatra, Harry Potter, Hans and Frans, the Grim Reaper, Homer Simpson, "Fire", Superman, a scary clown, and many others.

-Better is One Day

Real Deal is a student-led, contemporary praise and worship service held every Wednesday night in the Ken White Student Center. Campus Chaplain Ted Staton sponsors this popular nondenominational service, while senior John Dunn heads up the praise band. Others lifting their talents in praise are Kevin Boyle, Parks Carpenter, Anna Clark, Matt Cunningham, Leslie Dunn, Kristin Rogers and Brian Stock.

The praise band leads students in songs that inspire them to lift their hands and voices in worship.

Some songs further inspire students to be even more "undignified".

Student speakers share their testimonies and thought provoking life lessons each week. Speakers challenge students to think about decisions made in their spiritual lives. They also encourage students to participate in on and off campus mission activities.

Real Deal is a spiritual renewal time for students who may need uplifting. When students leave Real Deal they are filled with the Holy Spirit and are ready to face the rest of the week.

Rock on John

WE
SCARED

John Dunn Explains

On the way to 7:22 one week, with a couple of friends, we were listening to the radio and Nsync's "Dirty Pop" was on. My friend Justin Torrence was saying "We Ain't Scared" to everything. It did not matter what the subject was he would just say it.

So it got me thinking about our spiritual lives with Christ. How we can't be scared to worship him in any way we feel that we should. That is why I adopted the phrase as a theme for Real Deal, to remind us that "We Ain't Scared" to worship Christ with all our hearts.

Reinhardt Outdoors

Reinhardt Outdoors is something adventurous for Reinhardt students to participate in during both the Fall and Spring Semesters. It gives students an introduction to the outdoors and gives them an appreciation for nature.

Reinhardt College provides the perfect location for an outdoors program with its close proximity to Georgia and Tennessee mountains and rivers. The program provides weekend getaways and adventure rolled into one.

Reinhardt Outdoors usually plans one trip per month and the groups' numbers range from 10-15 people. The small numbers of participants make the trips more personal and fun.

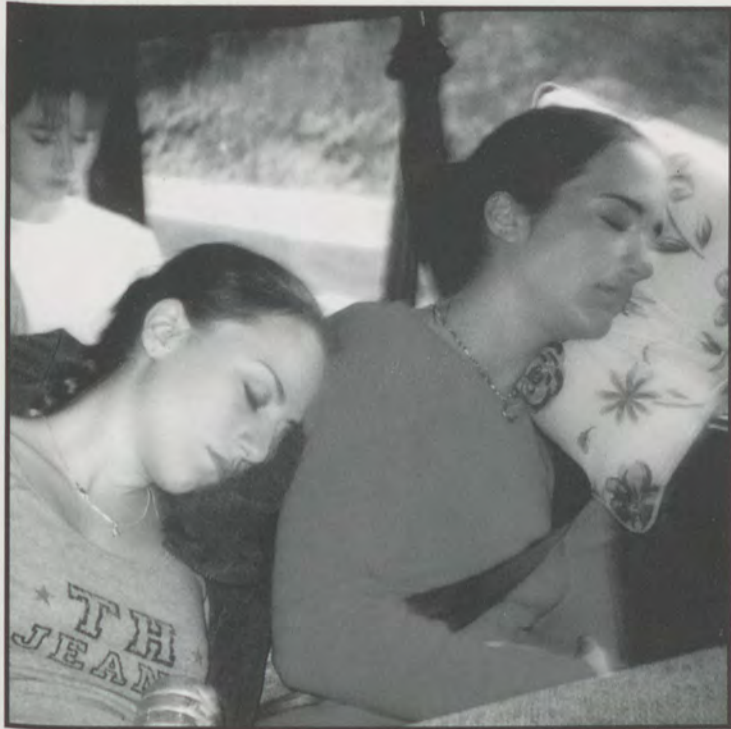

Some of the trips taken this year include rappelling at Stone Door State Park, rafting down the Hiwassee River, caving through the Wet Cave, hiking in Foster Falls State Park, Mountain biking in Fort Mountain State Park, and Horseback riding near the Ocoee River.

A beautiful view of the 75 ft. Foster Falls located in the South Cumberland Recreation Area in East Tennessee.

2002 Homecoming

The week-long Homecoming festivities began with "Spirit Week" and ended with exciting games against Life University and Morris College.

The "second annual first bonfire" put last year's bonfire to shame—it only took 8 gallons of kerosene!!

The week-long Homecoming festivities began with "Spirit Week" and ended with exciting games against Life University and Morris College. The spirit-filled week included men and women's basketball games at North Georgia College and State University, a battle between the Reinhardt alumni and the Men's JV Basketball team, and a special dance in the Ken White Student Center.

"Spirit Week" jump started Homecoming Week. On Monday students came to class in their pajamas. Other dress-up themes included Tacky Day, Twins Day, 80's Day, and Spirit Day. For the men's basketball game against Life University's Running Eagles, the SGA created a t-shirt with "LIFE STINKS" emblazoned across the front. The numerous dedicated students and parents that attended the men and women's basketball games wore these t-shirts to support the Eagles.

The Reinhardt Cheerleaders and Dance Team wowed the audience with incredible performances during the half time of both games.

Super Fans were on hand to support the Eagles in their defeat after a tough battle against Life University and cheer on the Lady Eagles in their victory over Morris College.

After dinner served in the Gordy Dining Center, alumni, parents and students gathered in the Ken White Student Center for the Homecoming Dance and the crowning of the Homecoming King and Queen. The Homecoming Dance was a wonderful end to an extraordinary week.

Mission Trip

The temperature at this year's mission trip hovered around 20 degrees

Our Reinhardt Spring Break Mission Trip was to Red Bird Mission in Kentucky this year. Red Bird mission was begun in the 1920's to minister to persons in the coal mining areas of eastern Kentucky. The mission contains a school, medical clinic and various ministries to help persons with clothing, job training and home repair. Though our students became involved in several of these ministry emphases, we all looked forward to the home repair tasks. We could see our progress each day as we painted the kitchen of an elderly person or designed and built her a stair railing to maintain her independent mobility. Back at camp, our worship and devotion times were inserted between periods of preparing the facilities for the summer when church groups from all over the U.S. will come to help in the community. The work of rebuilding and maintaining the camp takes a Christian with greater maturity than usual to perceive the ministry aspects of menial labor without the physical presence of persons in need. This behind-the-scenes missionary work, and our students came through with flying colors. As can be seen from our photos, we mixed fun with our serious worship and work. Everyone from students, faculty, staff to Red Bird folks enjoyed and felt fulfilled by the experience. We hope to do this type of trip again soon.

This year's Spring Day was "like none other before". The Student Activities Council enlisted the aid of several campus organizations who contributed time, energy, and prizes to make Spring Day a success. The Student Activities Council provided wax hands, a rock wall, and an obstacle course. The History Club sponsored a water balloon toss, the Communications Club donated a walkman, and the Rotaract Club donated a stereo. ROSE painted faces and the Student Government Association provided a button making booth. The Residential Life staff coordinated a Tug of War, a messy Egg Toss, and a horseshoe tournament. The Reinhardt Crew team sponsored a cook-out during the lunch hour and the REAL Varsity was on hand at dinner. To conclude the day's activities, an outdoor concert featured the Florida-based band Olive Carpet at the Donor's Plaza.

Honor's Day

Honors Day honored students with academic achievements. Anna Clark began the ceremony with by singing "Seek the Lord". After a welcome by Dr. Noel Powell and an introduction by Dr. Jerry Zeller, interim president Dr. Charles Glassick congratulated and encouraged the Honorees. Awards were then given to Sophomore Scholars, Dean's Scholars, and Presidential Scholars. Kim Johnson then presented the Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. The "No Greater Love" Award was then awarded to John Dunn. Outstanding Athletic Scholar Awards were then presented followed by Academic Subject Area & Subject Area Students of the Year awards for each area of study. The Multicultural Diversity Award was then presented to Dr. Aquiles Martinez by Dr. Elizabeth Garbrah Aidoo. One traditional and one non traditional student was honored with the Outstanding Student of the Year award. Professor Susan Lester was presented with the United Methodist Exemplary Teacher Award by the 2001 Honoree Professor Margaret O'Connor. The Ceremony was closed by a Benediction from Dr. Curtis Linquist.

The gourmet buffet began at 7:30 p.m. Beforehand many of the men began the evening with a little practice on the driving range. Then everyone ate a scrumptious dinner that consisted of BBQ shrimp and mashed potatoes, chicken marsala, steamed vegetables, and mixed greens. Students ate their dinner either outside on the country club's wrap-around balcony or inside the clubhouse's spacious interior. Cheesecake, chocolate cake, and strawberry cake were offered as dessert along with coffee and tea. After dinner and dessert, the tables were pushed back and the dancing began. While some students danced, others enjoyed the beautiful evening and strolled along the golf course. There was also a male bonding session on the balcony where some of our Reinhardt guys smoked cigars. After dancing "The Train", "The Electric Slide", and numerous slow songs, the dancing concluded at 11:00 p.m.

The 2002 Commencement ceremony was held indoors this year due to inclement weather. The weather did not dampen the spirit of the graduates or the spirit of their guests.

After a processional led by bagpipers Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frantz, Dr. Ted Staton opened the ceremonies with a prayer. Dr. Charles Glassick then welcomed all of the graduates, faculty, and guests.

Summa cum laude graduate Joy-Anne Waelti spoke to the graduates about holding on to their faith and leaning on the Lord by using the illustration "Footprints in the Sand".

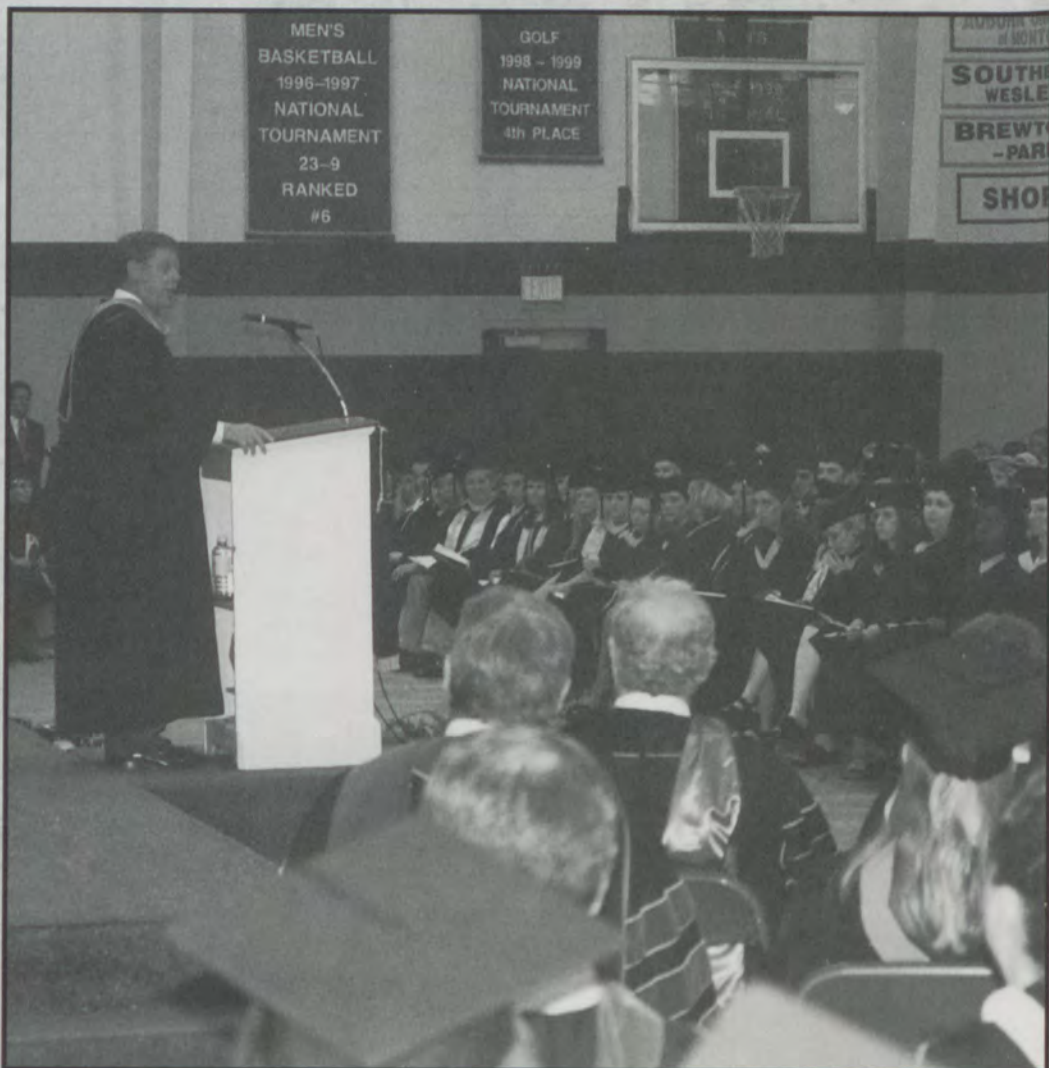

After Joy-Anne, the Honorable Johnny Isakson, U. S. Congressman, Sixth District of

Georgia and Reinhardt Trustee spoke on the "Silent Secrets" of life. The graduates then received their degrees and turned their tassels.

Each school was called individually to the stage to receive their degrees as follows: Associate Degrees, the School of Arts and Humanities, the McCamish School of Business and Communication, the Price School of Education, and the School of Mathematics and Sciences. After the conferring of degrees, graduates were then inducted into the Alumni Association. Kristina R. Ichwantoro, summa cum laude graduate, then closed the ceremony with a benediction.

Editor's Note

Bonnie's chance to say whatever she wants!

The 2001-02 yearbook was, from beginning to end, a labor of love. Translation: "WOW! That was a lot of work!" I would like to thank my yearbook staff- Ashley Sewell and Amber Prater for all of their hard work and long nights. Thanks to Walter May, Danielle Polcha, Dee Jay Jackson, Kimberly Cook, and Stephanie Carman for their help and to all of my friends who put up with me while I worked (tirelessly, of course) on the yearbook. Special thanks also to the Office of Marketing and Communication for their willingness to share pictures and to all of the professors, sponsors, and advisors who helped us to get all of these pages together. I would like to send a personal shout out to all of the Waleska Stars. You know who you are and I love ya'll very much!

I hope everyone enjoys this year's effort to catalogue life at Reinhardt. If you are embarrassed by a picture of yourself in the yearbook my advice would be to never do anything that you don't want your grandchildren to see. If you aren't in the yearbook and wanted to be, my advice is to do things you don't want your grandchildren to see. Lastly, thanks to all the students. You all put up with the yearbook camera constantly being in your faces very well. However, fair warning, next year is going to be WORSE!
