

ASO Tutorial

Offered by the Academic Support Office

Since 1982, Reinhardt's Academic Support Office has provided additional support to students with Specific Learning Disabilities and/or Attention Deficit Disorder. This highly successful program supports approximately 120 students a year, and it is staffed by four full time educators. Among the various support services rendered by the ASO is the ASO Tutorial.

ASO Tutorial is a paid tutorial program in a specific subject in which the student needs more support. The student works one-on-one with a paid tutor.

Who are the tutors?

The tutors are seasoned faculty members who are proficient in working with students with disabilities and/or differing learning styles.

How much does an ASO tutorial cost?

The ASO tutorial is $370 per credit hour.

What is the mode of the tutorial?

The one-on-one session is tailored to the student's needs in terms of his/her learning style and/or disability.

How many hours of tutorial does a student get per week?

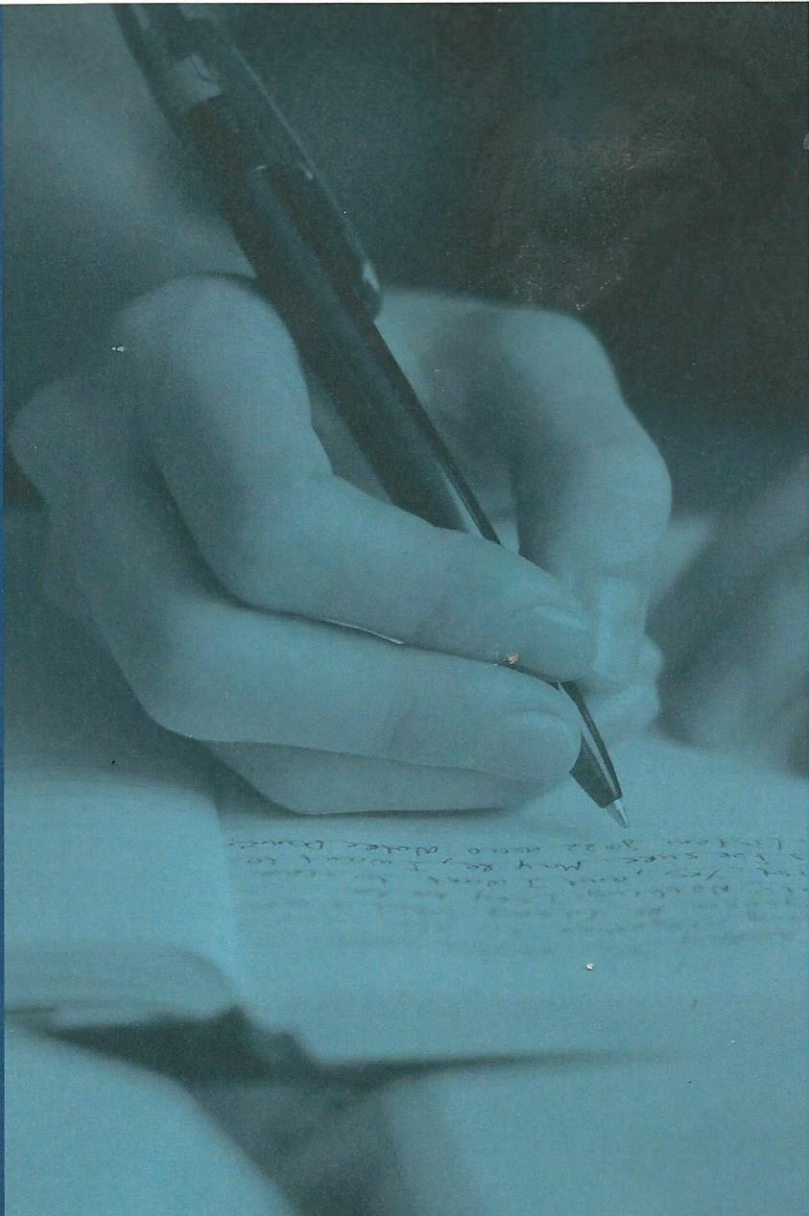

Two hours of tutorial per week.

Is the tutorial only for ASO students?

No, the tutorial is available for any Reinhardt student who pays the additional tutorial fee. ASO students, however, have first priority for faculty tutoring sessions.

What are the subject/courses in which student can get tutorial support?

- Math
- English
- Psychology
- History
- Sciences (Chemistry, Physics, Biology, Geology, Astronomy, Zoology)
